

HITLER PARADES ARMED MIGHT

HOUSE DEMOCRATIC LEADERS SEEK KEEP MEMBERS ON FLOOR

DESIRE TO MEET REPUBLICAN SNIPING AT MONETARY POWERS EXTENSION

WASHINGTON, April 20. (AP)—Members of the democratic "whip" organization met today to keep party supporters on the floor to meet republican sniping at a bill to extend the administration's monetary powers.

The house leadership was not so much concerned about what might occur during debate on the legislation, which resumed immediately after the meeting of the whips, as with minority attempts to slash the bill to pieces when it reaches the amendment stage tomorrow.

Representative Martin (D-Colo.) scoffed at republican criticism of the so-called 50-cent dollar which resulted from a reduction in the dollar's gold content in 1934.

The dollar today, Martin contended, is worth $1.30 on the basis of the 1926 commodity price index.

The bill would continue until June 30, 1941, the president's authority to devalue the dollar by another 9 per cent. It would extend also for two years the treasury's $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund and its authority to buy newly mined domestic silver above world prices.

Other developments of the day in Washington:

The house completed congressional action on a $66,800,000 bill authorizing a chain of new navy air bases in Alaska, the mid-Pacific and Puerto Rico. The measure now goes to the White House.

Encourages Aggression

Felix Morley, editor of the Washington Post (Ind.), told the house foreign affairs committee that inflexible neutrality legislation "actually encourages aggression."

President Roosevelt signed a bill authorizing an increase from $49,000,000 to $80,000,000 in the annual appropriation to assist states in the administration of unemployment compensation laws.

A 23-yea-old bill, the house refused to approve a bill exempting from labeling requirements of the new food and drug act certain physicians who dispense remedies for asthma and hay fever.

The senate postponed until Monday debate on a bill to solidate the government's relief activities, because of the illness of Senator Byrnes (D-SC) the measure's manager.

Republicans, meanwhile, proposed a decentralization of the relief system as an alternative for the Byrnes legislation.

To Draft Substitute

Republican Leader McNary appointed Senators Vandenberg (Mich), Taft (Ohio), Lodge (Mass) to draft substitute.

Mine Shutdown Brings Daylight To Four Mules

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 20. (AP)—Four mules of the Stinebaugh Coal Mining Company at nearby South Fork found a bright ray in the mine shutdown.

Normally stabled a quarter mile underground, they saw daylight for the first time in four years when operators decided to bring them to the surface pending resumption of work.

WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE PRAISES AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS; EDITORS TOLD SAVE STEAM FOR DICTATORS

WASHINGTON, April 20. (AP)—William Allen White advised America's newspaper editors today to reserve their steam for dictators.

White, who called Hitler and "not emote too heavily" about political issues at home.

The noted editor of the Emporia (Kas.) Gazette and president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors said he was not speaking about old-line political controversies but about fundamental new questions involving property rights.

White made the suggestion in a speech prepared for the opening session of the society's convention, during which he called American newspapers "the most dependable source of public information."

"In this country," he said, "American journalism, with all its faults, and there are many, is the only free, unfettered, unbossed, unlicensed vehicle through which one way or another finally and surely the truth comes to the American people."

DIE IN MEXICAN PLANE CRASH

Bodies Victims Plane Crash Are In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY, April 20. (AP)—The bodies of Daniel S. Roosevelt, nephew of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Bronson Harriman Rumsey, who were killed Tuesday afternoon in the crash of Rumsey's airplane, were brought here today.

G. Hall Roosevelt, brother of Daniel, and a brother of Rumsey were expected to arrive by airplane from Brownsville, Texas, to return the bodies to the United States by train tonight.

Miss Carlotta Constantine, daughter of Arthur Constantine, International News Service correspondent, who was injured in the crash, was reported to be progressing satisfactorily. She was brought to Crowder hospital here last night.

Mrs. Roosevelt's Plane Arrives

MINNEAPOLIS, April 20. (AP)—A Northwest Airline plane carrying Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and several other passengers reached Minneapolis at 11:37 a. m. (CST) today after being turned back earlier in its flight from Fargo, N. D., by fog and rain.

Mrs. Roosevelt is returning to Washington from Seattle because of the death of her nephew, Daniel S. Roosevelt, who was killed Tuesday in a plane crash in Mexico.

Effort To Revive Barber Bill Made Initial Hurdle

AUSTIN, April 20. (AP)—An effort to revive a bill allowing barbers to fix minimum charges for haircuts cleared its first hurdle today in the house.

Rep. Travis B. Dean of Hamlin obtained adoption of a resolution to recall the proposal from the governor's office.

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel yesterday disapproved the proposal but had withheld sending his veto message to the house pending action on the Dean resolution.

Dean said that if the bill were returned to the legislature, he would offer amendments eliminating features which Attorney General Gerald C. Mann had ruled unconstitutional.

Property rights, he continued, are being narrowed—a process which he said would continue "as new inventions produce new moralities and require new checks to establish a fair balance in the relation between the dollar and the man."

White said: "We can well afford to print both sides, to editorialize after the dictates of our own conscience."

"We can say what we want more convincingly if we are kind than if we are all hot and bothered. We can reserve our excess heat for Stalin, Mussolini, and Hitler. We can rage if we will against sin and the sales tax and political corruption and other devices of the devil."

White's speech set the keynote of the convention. He previously announced the major purpose this year would be to analyze reader criticisms of newspapers and try to find out whether the press was falling down on the job.

COTTON SPINNING INDUSTRY OPERATES AHEAD LAST YEAR

SLIGHTLY LOWER OPERATIONS BASIS THAN FEBRUARY THIS YEAR, HOWEVER

WASHINGTON, April 20. (AP)—The census bureau reported today the cotton spinning industry operated during March at 86.6 per cent of capacity, on an 80-hour two-shift-week basis, compared with 87.8 per cent during February this year, and 66.6 per cent during March last year.

Spinning spindles in place March 31 totaled 25,827,970 or which 22,472,330 were active at same time during the month, compared with 25,804,048 and 22,524,742 for February this year, and 22,288,098 for March last year.

Active spindle hours for March totaled 8,234,568,348 or an average of 319 hours per spindle in place, compared with 7,170,832,308 and 277 for February this year, and 6,485,416,003 and 245 for March last year.

Spinning spindles in place included: In cotton-growing states 18,607,766, of which 17,042,764 were active, compared with 18,618,538 and 17,088,830 for February this year.

SAN JACINTO DAY PROGRAM PLANNED AT BATTLEFIELD

SEVERAL THOUSAND VISITORS TO ATTEND DEDICATION HISTORICAL MUSEUM

HOUSTON, April 20. (AP)—Big naval guns boomed and drums rolled on the prairie of San Jacinto battlefield today as Texans gathered beneath the towering San Jacinto monument to hear orators extol the deeds of their forefathers and dedicate a state museum of history housed in the base of the shaft.

They came from all sections of the state and stood with bared heads as the guns of the big naval Cruiser Wichita, on the shake-down cruise, boomed a salute. The war vessel steamed up the ship channel past the field where Texas won her liberty from Mexico in 1838.

The historical museum dedication will be concluded late tomorrow after Governor O'Daniel and other speakers have been heard in addresses.

Dr. Eugene C. Barker, professor of American history at the University of Texas, will be the chief attraction.

DEBATE ROLLS ON PROPOSED INCREASE TAXES FOR SCHOOLS

BILL WOULD ORDER TAX BOARD SET RATE TO SUPPLY ANY APPORTIONMENT

AUSTIN, April 20. (AP)—By a vote of 17 to 13 the senate today re-referred from its committee on state affairs to the education committee a bill opponents charged would boost the state property tax for public school support from 7 to 35 cents.

The measure directs the automatic tax board to set a tax rate to meet whatever per capita apportionment the board of education establishes.

A companion bill, already sent to the house, authorizes the school board to set an unlimited apportionment, which currently is $22.

Senator A. McMaliken, Jr., of Paris made the successful motion for re-reference, charging the bill would never be reported if allowed to remain in the state affairs group.

Strong opposition came from state officials. Chairman R. A. Weinert of Seguin who said he was "more concerned for the school children than for the teachers."

The senate has sent to the house a bill authorizing the state board of education to set whatever apportionment it deemed necessary.

Referring to the tax bill, Weinert said it would be the "most costly" measure ever passed by the legislature.

He and Senator Clint Small of Amarillo asserted it would bring an increase in the tax rate to the constitutional maximum of 35 cents.

The current apportionment is $22 and Weinert said the education board could boost it to $40 leaving the automatic tax board no choice but to follow.

Small questioned why the legislature should "pile into the school fund more money than it requires by constitution" when at the same time it is denying other departments funds they could use.

Selfish Bandit Losses Life Third Robbery of Store

HOUSTON, April 20. (AP)—A bandit so persistent he held up the same grocery store three times in five nights met his death before a double charge of buckshot.

The man robbed a grocery of $30 Saturday night. The proprietor, not knowing her husband was taken $28 from the cash register, reported the loot as $58.

The bandit read the story in the newspapers. He came back Monday night and demanded the other $28.

He got $20.

Last night he returned to collect the $8 "balance."

Proprietor R. B. Marshall, was waiting with a loaded shotgun. When the man drew a pistol and demanded the $8 from a clerk, Marshall let him have both barrels.

Detective Lieut. A. C. Thornton identified the gunman as Ray Mulkey of Tulsa, Okla., former inmate of a federal prison. Justice of the peace Tom Maes returned an inquest verdict of justifiable homicide.

MUSSOLINI REJECTS ROOSEVELT PROGRAM WITH SCANT NOTICE

DECLARES, HOWEVER, BERLIN-ROME AXIS FOR PEACE AND COLLABORATION

ROME, April 20. (AP)—Premier Mussolini, answering President Roosevelt's radio today, declared ten-year peace guarantees were impossible without consideration of vast errors of geography of which he contended Europe was the victim.

He inferentially rejected an "expansive" conference of nations, but declared nevertheless the Rome-Berlin axis stood for "peace and collaboration."

It was suggested Italy might not make any other reply to Roosevelt's message of last Saturday than the indirect one he made today in a speech reviewing the progress of preparations for the 1939 World Exposition.

But he said that whether or not a reply was sent, he desired to reaffirm that "the policy of Rome and that of the axis is a policy inspired by the notions of peace and collaboration."

Mussolini opened his speech, responding to Roosevelt's appeal for a system of 10-year non-aggression guarantees by Italy and Germany to 31 nations to be followed by a disarmament and economic conference, on a note of quiet irony.

He said the meeting, which took place in Julius Caesar hall of the capitol, "first act of a great mobilization."

"Let not," he continued, "the few, the many, the too many who beyond the frontier abandon themselves to hysteria become alarmed at the sound of this word. It refers to a civil, pacific mobilization without arms."

Have Tranquil Mind.

Referring both to Roosevelt's appeal and to the press reaction which it inspired in many countries, he said:

"We do not allow ourselves to be misled."

ADMINISTRATION TO AWAIT HITLER TALK TO MAKE DECISION

ACTION ON RETURNING AMBASSADOR WILSON TO BERLIN HANGS FIRE

WASHINGTON, April 20. (AP)—A state department official said today that Premier Mussolini's speech concerning President Roosevelt's peace proposals, while disappointing, might still have some room for cooperative action.

Should the President wish to pursue his suggestions for a guaranteed peace and settlement of difficulties by the conference method, this official said, he might find a basis in the fact there were indications of peaceful intentions in the Italian Premier's response.

WASHINGTON, April 20. (AP)—The Roosevelt administration will await Adolf Hitler's recharged speech next week, it was learned today, before deciding whether to return Ambassador Hugh Wilson to Berlin.

Wilson was called home by the president last November for "report and consultation" after anti-Jewish outbreaks in Germany. He has remained here on "temporary assignment" as an advisor on German relations in the state department.

Great Britain decided yesterday to send back to Berlin its envoy, Sir Neville Henderson, who had been summoned to London.

HITLER REVIEWS BIG PARADE; MUSSOLINI REJECTS PEACE PLEA

CHIEF FOREIGN DICTATORS HAVE BIG DAY; NO ATTACK, SAYS IL DUCE

By The Associated Press.

Pope Pius XII today urged a world "crusade of prayer" during the month of May in behalf of "greatly longed-for Christian peace."

The Pope's appeal, in which he said he desired especially the prayers of children, came amid these developments in the tense world situation:

1. Italian Premier Mussolini rejected President Roosevelt's plea for guarantees of 10 years of non-aggression.

2. Great Britain announced establishment of a ministry of supply for her rapidly expanding army.

3. Germans celebrated Reichsfuehrer Hitler's 50th birthday with an imposing display of German armed might.

Honorary citizenship in the free city of Danzig was one of the gifts Hitler bestowed on Mussolini, but the big birthday present it had been rumored he would get—Danzig itself—did not come.

Mussolini made known his response to the President's six-day-old proposal at a committee meeting of the 1942 Rome Universal Exposition. He reaffirmed Italy's peaceful intentions, declared guarantees were unnecessary and called the suggestion that they be made "unjust."

"x x x We do not intend to attack anyone," he said. "x x x It is therefore absolutely unjust and unjustifiable from any point of view to attempt to place nations of the (Rome-Berlin) axis on the seat of the accused."

"No less absurd is the proposal of reciprocal guarantees lasting ten years which do not take into account the pyramidical errors of geography x x x."

"It is x x x time to reduce to silence the sowers of panic, the tipplers of catastrophe, professional fatalists. We x x x do not allow ourselves to be impressed by press campaigns or convoluted justifications, or by Messianic-like unjustures because we have a tranquil conscience x x x."

Rendered Real Service.

In Paris, French Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet told American Club "Your President has rendered a real service to all" in his appeal amid growing world anxiety and urged that all governments meet it by renouncing military aggression.

Military observers in Berlin saw mammoth new types of artillery—some of them never before displayed publicly—as Germany's military might rolled past the fuhrer's canopied reviewing stand.

The gigantic new artillery weapons apparently awed the foreign observers. From the conspicuous part assigned in the parade to the air defense units it was evident.

Television Here Declares Head Of Radio Corporation

NEW YORK, April 20. (AP)—The advent of television, long heralded as the beginning of a new American industry, was announced today by David Sarnoff, president of the Radio Corporation of America, in a television broadcast from the RCA exhibit building at the New York World's Fair grounds.

Sarnoff said, "we are now ready to fulfill the promise made to the public last October."

The television models on display at the building range from an attachment which reproduces pictures only and which plugs into a radio set for sound, to a large console type combination television and sound radio receiver, employing a 12-inch kinescope tube.

Price of the television attachment will be about $175. Complete sight and sound receivers will be priced from about $300 to $600.

FREE ATTENDANCE FOREIGN STUDENTS TO STATE COLLEGES

AUSTIN, April 20. (AP)—After debate in which the policies of "dictator nations" across the waters were severely rapped, the house today passed to final reading a senate bill allowing a limited number of students from other American nations to attend Texas colleges free of charge.

A motion to suspend the rules and place the proposal on immediate final passage failed by a vote of 95 ayes and 34 nays. A four-fifths majority would have been required. The proposal properly will come up for action next Wednesday.

The bill, which had been endorsed by Secretary of State Cordell Hull, would permit five students from each of the other American nations to come to Texas institutions without paying tuition. The total number of students given this privilege could not exceed 100 a year.

Rep. S. J. Isaacs of El Paso, house sponsor of the bill, said it would be a "great step."

FATHER, SON, GANGSTER PAL PAY PENALTY FOR MURDER OF TWO OFFICERS ELECTRIC CHAIR

COLUMBUS, O., April 20. (AP)—In 23 minutes of sweat-soaked suspense, the State of Ohio last night executed a father, son and their gangster pal for the murder of two Springfield, O., peace officers.

A record crowd of about 150 men, packed in the little death chamber at Ohio penitentiary, witnessed the electrocutions.

FIFTIETH BIRTHDAY NO. 1 DICTATOR OF WORLD IS OBSERVED

GIANT AIR DEFENSE GUNS SHOWN FIRST TIME AWED FOREIGN OBSERVERS

BERLIN, April 20. (AP)—Adolf Hitler proudly showed off mammoth new types of long range air defense guns under the keen eyes of the world's military observers today as part of Germany's celebration of his 50th birthday.

The artillery obviously awed the observers from abroad. There were no real clues to the caliber of the gigantic new weapons.

Great emphasis was placed on the extensiveness of army air defense units.

The heavy artillery of the air force included types of guns never seen publicly before in Berlin. Authorities enforced strict orders against photographing them.

So large were some of the weapons that four trucks were assigned to carry the parts of each, one truck transporting the barrel.

A dozen or so of these weapons, the "fifty-five atmospheres" on them, others the words "fifty-eight atmospheres."

From the length of the air defense section of the parade it was evident Germany was stressing its air power. Hitler looked straight ahead at most of the passing troops with his hand outstretched in the Nazi salute. But in the case of a unit of parachute jumpers, he gazed after them approvingly, even when they had long passed the stand.

Speakers wondered how much of the new equipment shown for the first time originated in Czechoslovakia, whose great arms works passed to German control with the dismemberment of the republic.

It was a triumphant day in the life of the world war corporal who became "augmentor of the reich." He was made an honorary citizen of Danzig Free City, in ceremony at the city's main square before the parade started.

So far as Danzig, part of Germany's war-lost territories, was concerned that appeared to be the only development. There is a strong movement in the Nazi-dominated city to return to the reich and there had been rumors Danzig might be a birthday present for the fuhrer.

Forty thousand soldiers started marching down the "Avenue of Splendor" about 11:25 a. m. (4:28 p. m. CST) with a mighty armada of 162 warplanes, as crossed the sky above them.

The parade was 4½ hours long.

Before leaving the Chancellery to take his place in the review, Hitler said:

57th Anniversary Of Fifteen-Inch Beard Observed

MONTESANO, Wash., April 20. (AP)—Mayor J. E. Calder marked the 57th anniversary of his 15-inch flowing beard today.

The mayor recalled that he arrived in Seattle from Minnesota on April 20, 1882, with 25 cents in his pocket.

It was either eat or shave, he said.

He said he hasn't missed a meal and has never shaved since.

Feeling through rimless, dark-jones spectacles, he said "I am not a murderer. A robber—I admit that—but not a murderer."

Dr. George W. Kell pronounced Chapman dead at 8:13. Several witnesses had collapsed.

Within two minutes, the younger Dingledine snatched in the room. With a gesture of bravado, he flipped aside a cigarette, called goodbye, and shook hands with two clergymen.

In the chair, Henry commented: "I am sorry for the officers' wives and their loved ones. I hope they are happy; I hope they will go all right with them. Goodbye, good luck, and God bless you."

Dr. Kell pronounced him dead at 8:20.

Chewing a cigar stump, the portly, florid Harry Dingledine entered the chamber at 8:32 to pronounce dead eight minutes later.

"Are there any of the boys around who want to shake hands with me?"

Married Monday Night. S. J. DuBose of Corsicana and Mrs. Clove Pierce Douglas of Centerville were married here Monday night at the residence of Judge A. E. Foster who performed the ceremony.

Women Answer From 12 States

To date, Touring Reporters have visited the principal cities of 12 Southern states; have asked 1297 users their famous question: "Did CARDUI help you?" Of those 1297 users, 1208 said they were definitely benefited by CARDUI. That's 93 out of every 100. What a record! CARDUI is a good stimulant for lagging appetites, a real aid to digestion and assimilation. That's why its proper use enables so many women and girls to build up physical resistance, and thus helps them avoid the periodic pain of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition.

BROAD GAUGE RELIGION WON VICTORY IN DAYS OF APOSTLES*

And Today the Christian Church is Experiencing Fresh Sense of Its Own Universality And Power Over Human Lives—Three Recent World Conferences.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

One Friday afternoon, in old Jerusalem, I was mingling with the throng of Jews at the Walling Place. A Jew from Chicago who had retired from business to spend the closing years of his life in the Holy Land engaged me in conversation as he criticized what he called the superstitious rites going on before our eyes. Then he declared "If the Christians had retained the Sabbath, and the dietary laws of Moses, nothing could have kept them from sweeping the world."

That old man, proud of his "liberalism," interested me because of the importance he attached to minor religious regulations. He missed the great sweep of spiritual truth. My thoughts were turned backward to the First Church Council in Jerusalem, when his sort of narrow notions were up for consideration, with the decision going squarely against Jewish ritualism and sectarianism, and in favor of tolerance and liberty. Not rites and observances, but the free spirit of Christ, were the marks of true believers fixed by the Apostolic church. The Gospel trail was to run on broad-gauge tracks.

Recollections of that Friday in Jerusalem tempt my pen to run on about the rigidity of religious rites among the present-day orthodox Jews in Palestine, so that they even impose them, to a degree, upon the Zionists. But, after all, is not this tendency to exalt rules and precedents common to all of us? How many of us today are better Christians, Catholics or Protestants, than the Jews of old?

There is a degree of comfort for our narrowness in the experience of the church of the first century. The original disciples of Jesus were all Jews, and they bitterly resented the coming of Gentiles into the church, unless they should first become circumcised, and otherwise conform to the usages of Judaism. They were so intolerant that when Paul and Barnabas baptized large numbers of Gentiles, the Jewish Christians sent trouble-making emissaries to these, seeking to discredit the missionaries.

Oh, yes, there were cantankerous Christians even in the days of those who remembered Jesus in the flesh. The church of Apostolic times was not made up of perfect saints. Even the most cursory reading of Paul's letters reveals the existence of just the same sort of trouble-makers and divisive forces that bother pastors today.

Early Cantankerous Saints. Still, they were Christians struggling upward. And they respected the authority of the church. When the issue of the status of Gentile converts became acute, Paul took it to the apostles at Jerusalem for decision.

James, the brother of Jesus, was the recognized leader of the church. We wish we knew more about him. When was he converted? The brothers of our Lord were not at first His followers. Did the resurrection or Pentecost open the eyes of James? The best portrait of him is presented by his own letter, in the New Testament canon. A just and rather stern man, he seems to have been especially qualified to preside over the heated Gentile-Jewish controversy.

Some angry spirits deplore controversy. Yet we should be grateful that there were sturdy souls. . . . The Sunday School Lesson for April 12 is "Paul Wins Recognition for Gentile Christians."—Acts 15:1-35; Galatians 2:1-10.

In the early church, of giant intellect, who would not compromise their convictions, but argued them through to a decision. In our excessive modernity, we should not forget the church fathers, who seem to have been gifted with mightier brains than any we know today. Thanks to the Apostolic church, the Gospel was saved from being side-tracked into narrow sectarianism. It became the religion for all men, of every race and country and condition.

The Greatest World Force Something of the spirit of that first General Council seems to be pervading Christendom today. Within the past twelve months there have been held three great ecumenical gatherings of Christians, the Roman church being the only absentee. These were the world-wide gatherings at Oxford, Edinburgh and Madras. They dealt with our faith in comprehensive world terms; and their messages are everywhere permeating down into the 100,000,000 churches.

These significant modern gatherings reaffirmed the central historic doctrines of God, the one Father of us all, and of Jesus Christ, the one Saviour from sin. They stressed the unity of the world-wide church, with its more than half a billion members. A definite trend toward church unity has set in everywhere. North America shows the greatest numerical non-ecumenical divisions; nevertheless, a former president of the Federal Council of churches recently ventured the prophecy that in twenty-five years there will be only one church in all America.

From these recent ecumenical meetings has come a new understanding of Christianity. It is the most potent force on earth today. As one instance of its power, we recall that in Germany only the church has been able to withstand Hitler and the Nazi program. We have learned, too, of the recent large-scale acceptance of the Gospel in India and China and Africa. Deep-flooding in the world's democracies is a new understanding of the place of Christianity in practical affairs. Statesmen are foremost in recognizing the religious factor in the mood of mankind.

News reports affected the church at Jerusalem, even as they affect the church today. It was the story of the Gospel's triumph amongst the Gentiles that caused the Apostles to make their momentous decision of a comprehensive, universal church, instead of a Jewish sect. And it is the tidings, sweeping in from all parts of the earth, concerning a re-emergence of Christianity in power, that is arresting and arousing Christians everywhere. A new sense of the primacy of God in human life, a larger conception of the character and mission of the Church; a fresh conviction of the utter adequacy of Jesus Christ as the only leader for these times, are taking fresh hold of people everywhere. Even the greatest heresy of all, which is indifference, is breaking down before the sobering onrush of the truth that the Gospel is for all men and for all life.

Richard Coke, who died at his residence, Horne Hollow, six miles north of Marlin at 2:20 a. m. Tuesday were held from Compton's chapel Wednesday at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Mark Joseph of Temple officiating. Burial in Oakwood cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be Frank Trevitt of Houston and seven nephews, James Rice, George Rice, Jack McKelvey, Lucius McKelvey, Coke Rhodes, Bob Moore and Jack Kenner.

Honorary pallbearers will be James Collins, Dr. A. C. Hornbeck, of Marlin, C. E. Schuler, Fred Crawford, Herbert Rice, Hubbard Stewart, C. W. Kennon, C. W. Murchison of Houston, James Whitworth, Lon Wollett, W. N. Hooper, of Houston, George Sawtelle, Ben Simon, W. E. Butler, Waddy Bacon, E. J. Gannon, P. T. Neale, J. B. Hardin, Will Edmond, Wilbur Crawford, H. M. Richey, Crockett Austin.

Mr. Horne was the son of the late James E. Horne and Mrs. Lula Baker Horne, prominent residents of this city. He spent most of his life here before removing to Horne Hollow about four or five years ago. The old Horne homestead was located where South Junior high school now stands.

He was a nephew of Waller and James B. Baker. Was in Oil Business. Mr. Horne has been engaged in the oil business for several years and held extensive interests in the Conroe field.

Surviving are his widow, three sisters, Mrs. Mary Waller McKelvey, whose husband, Dr. J. S. McKelvey, is a prominent Temple physician; Mrs. Lula Horne Rice and Mrs. Jimmie Horne Ryburn of Dallas; a brother, Lucius Horne of Dallas.

Mr. Horne was well known in Corsicana, he having married Miss Alma Walton, daughter of C. C. Walton of this city. Mr. Walton, his daughter, Mrs. W. R. Kenner, Miss Emily Kenner, Mrs. C. M. Thornhill, Mrs. S. S. Johnston and daughters, Mrs. Bird Willard and Mrs. Sid Story went to Waco early Wednesday to attend the funeral rites.

Brothers Announce
Marriage of Sister
On Saturday Night

The brothers of Miss Evelyn Murphy wish to announce her marriage to Mr. Tom Adgate Saturday night in a simple ceremony performed at the Eleventh Avenue Methodist parsonage, with Rev. B. B. Byus officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Adgate motored to Dallas for the night and returned Sunday afternoon to their apartment at 1230 West Collin street, where they will reside.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors who were so thoughtful and so kind to us in the lonely hours of our sorrow, and bereavement during the recent illness and death of our beloved Frank. Words cannot express our appreciation for the deeds of kindness and the words of comfort. We are also thankful for the many beautiful floral offerings. And may God's richest blessings and that peace which passes all understanding be with each of you, is our prayer.—Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Bridges and Family.

R. C. HORNE DIED AT HIS COUNTRY HOME
NEAR MARLIN TODAY

Word was received by C. C. Walton and family and other relatives in Corsicana Tuesday bearing the sad news that R. C. (Coke) Horne died at his country home near Marlin, on the Waco road, Tuesday morning, following several weeks of illness due to heart disease.

Mr. Horne was stricken about six weeks ago on the eve of his departure with his wife and others for a visit to Florida. He showed improvement for some time but had declined steadily the past several days until death came Tuesday morning.

Mr. Horne, who was well known to many Corsicans, leaves his wife, who was the former Miss Alma Walton of Corsicana, one brother, three sisters and other relatives. Burial will be in Waco, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Slight Fire Damage.

A blaze on an oil stove that spread to the wallpaper of a residence at 710 East Ninth avenue caused a run for the fire department at 8:55 Wednesday morning with loss estimated at $10 to $15.

DO YOU SPEND MOST OF YOUR TIME AT A SEDENTARY? OCCUPATION?

The human body needs exercise and recreation to keep well, and overwork without observation of these two necessities will demand extra payment in ill-health and shortened life. The person who sits constantly at a desk, or spends long hours at any task, year in and year out, ignoring rest periods and exercise, is placing more value on material things than on health.

Exercise and recreation help to rebuild and revitalize the bodily and mental faculties, and help to throw off the waste materials. The kidneys are the greatest sufferers from failure to observe these simple health requirements. These faithful workers work "day and night," trying to throw off the poisons, and finally break down under the strain, with Bright's disease, high blood-pressure or some other serious consequence. A healthy body demands exercise, and change of mental or physical scenery.

When your kidneys are over-active, especially at night, you can be sure the body is trying to take care of a "toxic" condition. Should this persist, do not delay consulting your doctor. Bright's disease is preventable, but not curable, and that is a "first symptom."

SENATE ASKED TO CONTINUE WORK OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

SCHWELLENBACH WANTS CIVIL LIBERTIES PROBERS TO KEEP UP WORK

WASHINGTON, April 19.—(AP)—Senator Schwellessbach (D-Wash.) asked the senate today to continue the work of its special civil liberties committee by providing $100,000 additional funds.

Schwellessbach said lack of funds had prevented the committee, usually referred to as the LaFollette committee, from completing an investigation of "violations of the rights of free speech and assembly and undue interference with the right of labor to organize and bargain collectively" in California, Oregon and Washington.

Other developments in Washington:

Complete repeal of the present government silver purchase program and sale of much of the huge hoard of metal accumulated under it was urged before a senate banking sub-committee by Herbert M. Bratter, economist and writer.

President Roosevelt said in a letter to the house agriculture chairman that enactment of sugar law amendments proposed by Senator Henderson (D-La.) would be a "serious threat to the future of the policy of improved relationships" among American republics.

House foes of legislation to extend the administration's monetary powers lined up behind a republican recommendation for congressional control over money and an early return to the gold standard.

The report, submitted by a party committee to house republicans yesterday, demanded discontinuance of the domestic silver purchase program and the President's authority to devalue the dollar further. It asked greater restrictions on the treasury's $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund.

The money bill would continue these three features until June 30, 1941.

The republicans proposed a senate-house committee be established to work out changes in the monetary system, especially a means of bringing about an early resumption of specie payments.

The committee said its suggestions would end "all unsound and dangerous elements" in the present monetary system, stimulate recovery immeasurably, and restore confidence in government.

Relief-Works Bill

Split Two Parts

WASHINGTON, April 19.—(AP)—The senate unemployment committee split the Byrnes relief-public works bill into two sections today and sent it to the senate floor.

One part would consolidate WPA, PWA, CCC, NYA, the Bureau of Roads and Federal building activities under a new independent Public Works Agency.

The other would liberalize unemployment compensation, old age assistance and aid to dependent children under the social security system.

Before this action, four republicans on the committee submitted a report saying the bill written by Chairman Byrnes (D-SC) would be "essentially a step forward."

The four—Louis (Mass.) Davis, (Pa.) McNary (Ore.) and Frazier (ND)—said consolidation of the relief agencies should effect administrative economies.

On the other hand, El-Britain opposition developed to Byrnes proposals in the house committee investigating WPA.

Rep. Taber (R-NY) senior minority member of the house committee, said Byrnes plan would not solve the relief problem because it proposed merely to continue the existing set-up without basic changes.

"No plan will solve the problem if it does not return to the

Emhouse Declaimers To Enter Regional Meet at Denton

Two declaimers from Emhouse High school won the district honors at Waco Saturday and this Saturday will compete in the regional University of Texas Inter-scholastic league contests at Denton. Superintendent Mr. A. Taylor stated Wednesday while in Corsicana.

Charles Payne won the district championship in junior high school declamation while Sidney Foster took first place in the grammar school division at the Waco contests.

These two winners were the only representatives from Emhouse High school entered in the district competition last week.

states sufficient power so that they can administer projects," Taylor said. "We have not tried that yet, and I know of no good reason why we shouldn't."

To Prevent Bergdoll Returning to U. S.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—(AP)—Members said today the house military committee, acting with unusual speed had tentatively approved legislation aimed at preventing return to this country of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, world war draft dodger.

The measure, introduced only two days ago, was considered at a secret session and was immediately referred to the committee. Action was deferred pending a formal report from the war department.

Representative Harness (R-Ind) author of the measure, said he understood Bergdoll, who fled to Germany to evade military service against that country, was planning to return to the United States within the next week or ten days.

In an effort to circumvent such a development, Harness said the committee would hold a special meeting as soon as the war department's report is received, to rush the bill to the house.

General in its scope the measure would prevent the readmission to the United States of any person who deserted from the nation's armed service, then fled the country to escape punishment.

Predicts Tax Revision

WASHINGTON, April 19.—(AP)—Senator Harrison (D-Miss) today predicted general tax revision at this session as a business stimulus.

President Roosevelt told reporters yesterday he would resume tax discussions in a week or ten days with Harrison and Chairman Doughton (D-NV) the house ways and means committee.

Hope For Peace Expressed

PARIS, April 19.—(AP)—Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet told the chamber of deputies today the French government had "steadfast hope that the road opened" by President Roosevelt's telegrams to Hitler and Mussolini would lead to peace.

A communiqué said Bonnet praised the American president's initiative at length.

He also told the deputies French efforts to assure Soviet Russian aid to Poland, Rumania and Turkey in event of war should soon "reach a rapid and satisfactory conclusion."

Negotiations with Russia, he declared, were "aimed against no one" but were "designed solely to maintain peace."

He declared French efforts to bring Poland and Rumania together also were "proceeding satisfactorily."

Favor Denton Dam

WASHINGTON, April 19.—(AP)—Five Oklahoma representatives in congress were on record today as in favor of building the Denton dam on Red river between Oklahoma and Texas.

Senator Thomas and Representative Messingale advised the Western Oklahoma Chamber of Commerce yesterday they favored the project. Similar statements had been made by Representatives Ferguson, Cartwright and Moroney.

Personal Mention Of Wortham Folk And Their Visitors

WORTHAM, April 20.—(Spl.)—Quite a number of Wortham people attended the Kerns Family reunion which was held at 3:30 Tuesday in the music room of the grammar school with a large group present.

Presiding as president for the last time, Mrs. Wade Price graciously turned the reins of government over to the incoming head and with a sincere expression of gratitude for the loyalty and help rendered her, presented Supt. G. H. Wilemon as program leader.

After hearing the reading of the minutes, treasurer's report and reports from all outstanding committees, oom count was taken and the first grade room was declared winner for the entire year, on attendance of 100 per cent.

Miss Bertie Mae Stevens presented ten members of her choral club in a series of popular numbers, with Miss Dorothy Bess Atkins accompanying.

Mrs. Albert Berry, chairman of the nominating committee, read the report for officers for the coming year, all of whom were unanimously elected.

Mr. Wilemon, in visualizing some of the accomplishments in the different departments of both the high and grammar school, presented Arthur Tyson, who gave an interesting insight into some of the work along the lines of safety and health, which have been stressed for the last semester.

Jack Poff, professor of biology, then told some of his classroom experiences with special mention of the recently added course, which includes a certified certificate in first aid.

Miss Velma Jones, primary supervisor, concluded the program with interesting facts and fancies, concerning the first grade, and invited all into the music room, where first, second and third grade work was on display. Occupying a position of importance was the recently completed train, which was one of the first grade projects.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Keeling, Mr. and Mrs. Henley Keeling visited in the city this week.

Mrs. Margaret Nelms, of Dallas is visiting with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Cole.

Henry Meador, Jr. of Kilgore visited his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Meador.

John Reinhart and sons, John and Leslie of Kilgore visited in Wortham this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnett of Valley Mills visited in the home of their daughter.

Miss Frances Chancellor has been visiting in Teague and Fairfield several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wallis of Bryan visited their parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wallis over the week end.

Kerns Music Club In Program Session Wednesday Afternoon

KERENS, April 20.—(Spl.)—At the home of Mrs. J. E. Simmons, the Kerns Music club, met Wednesday at 3 p. m. for one of the final meetings of the present year.

Mrs. James E. Taylor was co-hostess.

Mrs. G. H. Wilemon, president, called the meeting to order and disposed of all necessary business items, among which were the resignation of Mrs. E. H. Gray as a club member, resignation of Mrs. Wade Price as junior music club sponsor and the appointment of Mrs. Brook Smith to the vacancy, the appointment of Mrs. P. P. Walker to chairmanship of the membership committee, and Mrs. Carrie McKinney to serve on same.

Mrs. C. W. White, program leader then took charge and gave an interesting resume of the life of Dvorak, in his home in Spillway, and forty years after.

One of Dvorak's favorite compositions, "Song My Mother Taught Me," was sung as a solo number by Mrs. V. D. Bruner, Mrs. A. S. Pritchard accompanying at the piano.

"Largo" from the New Symphony was rendered as a piano solo by Mrs. Pritchard and Mrs. Charles Reese sang "Long, Long Ago" as a fitting conclusion.

An ice course was served to club members and the following guests: Miss Carrie Daniel, Mrs. W. T. Stockton, Mrs. Andrew McClung, Mrs. H. A. Quate, Mrs. W. M. Bain, Mrs. J. C. Beck, Mrs. Boyd Murrell, Mrs. L. H. Holt and Miss Shirley Taylor.

Junior Pioneer Club, KERENS, April 20.—(Spl.)—The Junior Pioneer club, meeting in regular session Wednesday afternoon was royally entertained by their sponsor, Mrs. F. H. Gray, at her log cabin lodge.

Miss Thelma Jo Blissett led the interesting program on "Mexico." Julia McCann gave "The Mystery of the First People Who Settled in Mexico."

Kerens PTA In Its Final Meeting Of Year on Tuesday

KERENS, April 20.—(Spl.)—The last meeting of the Kerns PTA Association was held at 3:30 Tuesday in the music room of the grammar school with a large group present.

Presiding as president for the last time, Mrs. Wade Price graciously turned the reins of government over to the incoming head and with a sincere expression of gratitude for the loyalty and help rendered her, presented Supt. G. H. Wilemon as program leader.

After hearing the reading of the minutes, treasurer's report and reports from all outstanding committees, oom count was taken and the first grade room was declared winner for the entire year, on attendance of 100 per cent.

Miss Bertie Mae Stevens presented ten members of her choral club in a series of popular numbers, with Miss Dorothy Bess Atkins accompanying.

Mrs. Albert Berry, chairman of the nominating committee, read the report for officers for the coming year, all of whom were unanimously elected.

Mr. Wilemon, in visualizing some of the accomplishments in the different departments of both the high and grammar school, presented Arthur Tyson, who gave an interesting insight into some of the work along the lines of safety and health, which have been stressed for the last semester.

Jack Poff, professor of biology, then told some of his classroom experiences with special mention of the recently added course, which includes a certified certificate in first aid.

Miss Velma Jones, primary supervisor, concluded the program with interesting facts and fancies, concerning the first grade, and invited all into the music room, where first, second and third grade work was on display. Occupying a position of importance was the recently completed train, which was one of the first grade projects.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Keeling, Mr. and Mrs. Henley Keeling visited in the city this week.

Mrs. Margaret Nelms, of Dallas is visiting with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Cole.

Kerns Music Club In Program Session Wednesday Afternoon

KERENS, April 20.—(Spl.)—At the home of Mrs. J. E. Simmons, the Kerns Music club, met Wednesday at 3 p. m. for one of the final meetings of the present year.

Mrs. James E. Taylor was co-hostess.

Mrs. G. H. Wilemon, president, called the meeting to order and disposed of all necessary business items, among which were the resignation of Mrs. E. H. Gray as a club member, resignation of Mrs. Wade Price as junior music club sponsor and the appointment of Mrs. Brook Smith to the vacancy, the appointment of Mrs. P. P. Walker to chairmanship of the membership committee, and Mrs. Carrie McKinney to serve on same.

Mrs. C. W. White, program leader then took charge and gave an interesting resume of the life of Dvorak, in his home in Spillway, and forty years after.

One of Dvorak's favorite compositions, "Song My Mother Taught Me," was sung as a solo number by Mrs. V. D. Bruner, Mrs. A. S. Pritchard accompanying at the piano.

"Largo" from the New Symphony was rendered as a piano solo by Mrs. Pritchard and Mrs. Charles Reese sang "Long, Long Ago" as a fitting conclusion.

SECOND QUARTERLY CONFERENCE FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

EXCELLENT REPORTS MADE BY ALL DEPARTMENTS OF CHURCH WEDNESDAY NIGHT

After a brief devotional held in the educational building of the First Methodist church Wednesday night by Rev. R. O. Sory, presiding elder, the second quarterly conference of this church was held by Rev. Mr. Sory. He announced the adult rally for the district with one to be held Monday night at 8 o'clock at North Corsicana.

Edgar Metcalf was elected secretary and interesting reports were made by Dr. P. E. Riley, the pastor, on the state of the church; Mrs. Clyde Gray, for the Woman's Missionary Society; W. H. Norwood, general superintendent for the church school; Boyce Martin, for the adult department; Dr. H. B. Love for the young adult department; Mrs. R. B. Mitchell for the Golden Cross; and T. J. Walton and Mrs. T. J. Walton for the charity work of the church.

Dr. Riley's report showed much activity in every department of the church; Mrs. Gray stated that there were now 220 members in the Woman's Missionary Society the largest number on record; Mr. Walton stated the church was doing more work among the poor now than for many months.

Mrs. J. A. Wilkinson, church executive, made the financial report; Mr. Norwood's report showed the Sunday school running in a fine way. S. W. Burdine and Mrs. Ab Haslam were appointed to examine the church rolls and records.

Mr. Martin told of the recent Brotherhood banquet and the purchase of the cross for the communion table sponsored by the Brotherhood Bible class of his department; Dr. Love told of many activities in his department; Miss Allen Carraway told of activities in the children's division and Mrs. Loyd Chambliss in the young people's work.

Mrs. Mitchell stated that the Golden Cross and Hospital Day would be observed Mother's Day. Boyce Martin was elected a delegate and Mrs. J. W. Davis an alternate to the annual conference to be held this fall; the voting was by ballot.

Rev. Mr. Sory commented very favorably on the fine reports made and the general activity of the entire church organization. In his opening remarks he stressed the importance of the church.

And too—get to me the scores of the game as soon as possible so that the records can be placed in the newspapers.

Kerens Colored

Hi School Students

Banquet School Board

KERENS, April 20.—(Spl.)—The annual luncheon of the graduating class of the Kerens colored school, which is prepared and served under the direction of the home economics instructor, in honor of the white school board, was served at the well equipped Goodlow Park school Friday at 12:30.

A. A. Hardaway, colored superintendent, made the speech of welcome, and announced several choral numbers, among which were "Swing Low," "Traveling On," and "I Know Jesus," all beautifully rendered.

Superintendent of the Kerens Independent school district, G. H. Wilmon, next gave a talk, in which he enumerated some of the aims and accomplishments of the colored school, and presented P. W. Stockton, guest, in a short talk of appreciation.

The luncheon, perfectly cooked and served in three courses, was enjoyed by the following trustees and their wives:

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Talley,

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Bruner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cherry, Jr., Dr. G. H. Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Stockton, and Mr. and Mrs. Howell Brister, who were guests.

LINDBERGH TAKES TEMPORARY DUTY AS AN ARMY OFFICER

WILL MAKE SURVEY AMERICAN AVIATION RESEARCH FACILITIES

WASHINGTON, April 19.—(AP)—Ordered on temporary duty as an army officer, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh began today a survey of American aviation research facilities to help make the nation's warplanes the best in the world.

Piloting an army plane, he probably will visit the most important of about 30 aircraft research centers during the next two to four weeks. Afterward the famous aviator, who has been a reserve officer since 1925, will make a confidential report to Major General Henry H. Arnold, air corps chief.

Secretary Woodring's unexpected decision to have Lindbergh make the survey came just as the army is starting to build up its air corps to 6,000 planes. Aviation experts recently told congressional committees Germany was building better planes than the United States because of better research laboratories.

The active military role is now for the trans-Atlantic flier, although in his capacity as a reserve officer he is a member of the national advisory committee for aeronautics he had supplied information on aviation developments in Europe. Officials said he had completed the flying course at a Texas training center.

They emphasized he undertook the assignment voluntarily, less than a week after his arrival from Europe.

Although Lindbergh had agreed tentatively to appear at the house foreign affairs committee's neutrality hearings acting Chairman Bloom (D-N.Y.) said today it had been decided it would be better, in view of the flyer's survey for the army, to postpone his testimony indefinitely.

"Nobody knows what information he might be able to give us that would help solve the neutrality problem," Bloom said, "but we do know the information he can obtain for the government will be of very great importance."

Col. Lindbergh's pay, with allowances, will amount to about $600 a month. He is one of about 55 air corps colonels.

Some officers viewed Lindbergh's survey as likely to dramatize an appeal to congress by the national advisory council for aeronautics for a new $100,000,000 aviation research station at Sunnyvale, Calif.

The house rejected the proposal after its military committee said the Sunnyvale station would needlessly duplicate Langley Field, Va., facilities. The senate, however, approved an Indiana $4,000,000 outlay.

KIDNAPED, BEATEN MAN WAS NATIVE OF NAVARRO COUNTY

R. F. Mitchell, 29, Whitehouse, Texas, school teacher, who was seriously beaten August 26, was robbed by two hit-chickens early Sunday. He is a son of Frank Mitchell of Frost and is a graduate of Texas A. and M. college.

Mitchell, according to press notices, was kidnapped by two hit-chickens near Tyler, Sunday, was forced to drive them to a point near Greenwood, La., was beaten and robbed of $62. The victim is in a Tyler hospital. He reported to officers he struck one of his captors with a hammer and grappled with the other robber, but later was overpowered.

The elder Mr. Mitchell was in Corsicana, Tuesday morning, but had not received any later news of his son's condition.

FARM SLUMP

When the farmers prosper, the nation prospers. The money they spend fertilizes all business. The period of comparative prosperity that our country enjoyed about the middle of this decade was a time when farmers not only had good crops but were getting good prices for them. The last couple of years have been bad for them again. Representing 25 per cent of the nation's population, they got only 8 per cent of the national income last year. They bought less accordingly, and dragged down other classes' buying power along with their own. You can trace, in a pretty straight line, the paralyzing effect of low crop prices on retail business, wholesale business, manufacture, industrial employment and employment in general.

It is easier to explain this disease than to prescribe for it. The farmer's export market has shrunk. People almost everywhere are more interested in buying and storing armament than food. Americans eat less cereals than they used to, and more vegetables. We wear less cotton clothing. And so on.

Yet the farmers must prosper if the rest of our people are to prosper. Are we destined to solve the problem unintentionally this time as we solved it 25 years ago, in a similar situation—by selling the output of farm and factory to Europe after it has entered upon a big war?

MONEY FOR COLLEGES

It was thought for a while that the depression would be very hard on the colleges. A recent survey of gifts and bequests to 49 colleges actually received more money during the depression years than during prosperity. Oddly, bequests increased sharply in those years. The depression, apparently, has affected the prominent institutions very slightly.

The conclusion of the report is that "the larger and wealthier endowed universities are so firmly entrenched as objects of American philanthropy that hard times have not yet seriously interfered with their financial support." The smaller institutions, however, have suffered severely.

It may be that individuals with money to give or bequeath to colleges are more familiar with the work of the big ones and are consequently more willing to support them. It would be unfortunate, however, if the excellent work done by some small colleges—and particularly the women's colleges—should be hampered by this attitude.

A reader wants to know how to address King George and Queen Elizabeth in case he should happen to meet them. Oh, just be yourself and say "Howdy, King!" and "Glad, tuhmeetcha, Queen!" And maybe follow it up with "How's the kiddies?" and "Ain't you a long way from home?"

If it isn't one thing, it's another. We have got rid of sit-down strikes, but now there's too much money sitting down.

Bruce Barton says stocks rise in Wall Street every time the President takes a vacation. When the cat's away the mice will play.

JUST FOLKS

(Copyright, 1937, Edgar A. Guest)

THE GOLFING PARSON RETURNS

Once more the golfing parson comes
On Monday, with his sermons done
And all his prayers, as he declares
To get a bit of springtime sun
And catch a sight of asphodel
Where quail and ring-necked pheasant dwell.

Again the golfing parson stands
All eagerly upon the tee
"Tis good to hear the songbirds near."
He solemnly proclaims to me.
"Tis good to be alive and sense
Another spring's experience!"

"I'm truly thankful I have lived
Another dreary winter through
And glad am I, while passing by,
For all that vault of azure blue—
Merely to walk this grassy aisle
Would make the afternoon worth while."

I've heard that speech so oft before
I merely stand in silence now
And let him praise in saintly words
The blossoms on the cherry bough.
For done with that I know he'll say:
"What strokes do I receive to-day?"

EARLIEST AGRI-CULTURE

Perhaps we've got the Old World and New World labels on the wrong bits of civilization. Dr. Donald H. Brand, New Mexican anthropologist, asserts that human civilization, as measured by agricultural development, is older in this hemisphere than across the sea. Particularly, he holds the idea mistaken that agriculture originated in Egypt.

"If the beginnings of agriculture mark the dawn of civilization," he says, "then evidence collected by botanists and anthropologists indicates an earlier civilization in the New World than in the Old. Unlike wheat, and most other domesticated plants, Indian corn requires cultivation for its propagation, and scarcely an Old World species of plant can compare with maize, field pumpkins and kidney beans in the area of its spread at the time of Columbus."

The climatic range and variety of many plants of the New World "can not be matched in Eurasia or Africa. The prehistoric inhabitants of our two continents domesticated more plants than the inhabitants of any comparable area in the world."

Our predecessors seem to have learned to grow the stuff first. It would be fine to honor their achievement by being the first to discover how to distribute it all, widely and profitably.

"BE GOOD AMERICANS"

Dr. Edward Benes, one of the founders and former president of the vanished Czechoslovak Republic, is now pleading the Czech cause in America in his usual statesmanlike way. He is in no sense an agitator. He tells his country's story with simple dignity, professes his hope in its future liberation, and says to Americans of Czech and Slovak origin:

"Be good Americans. In that way you can help Czechoslovakia most. Help to make greater the world's greatest democracy, and you will be helping to bring democracy back to the land of your ancestors. Successful democracy is the best answer to dictators."

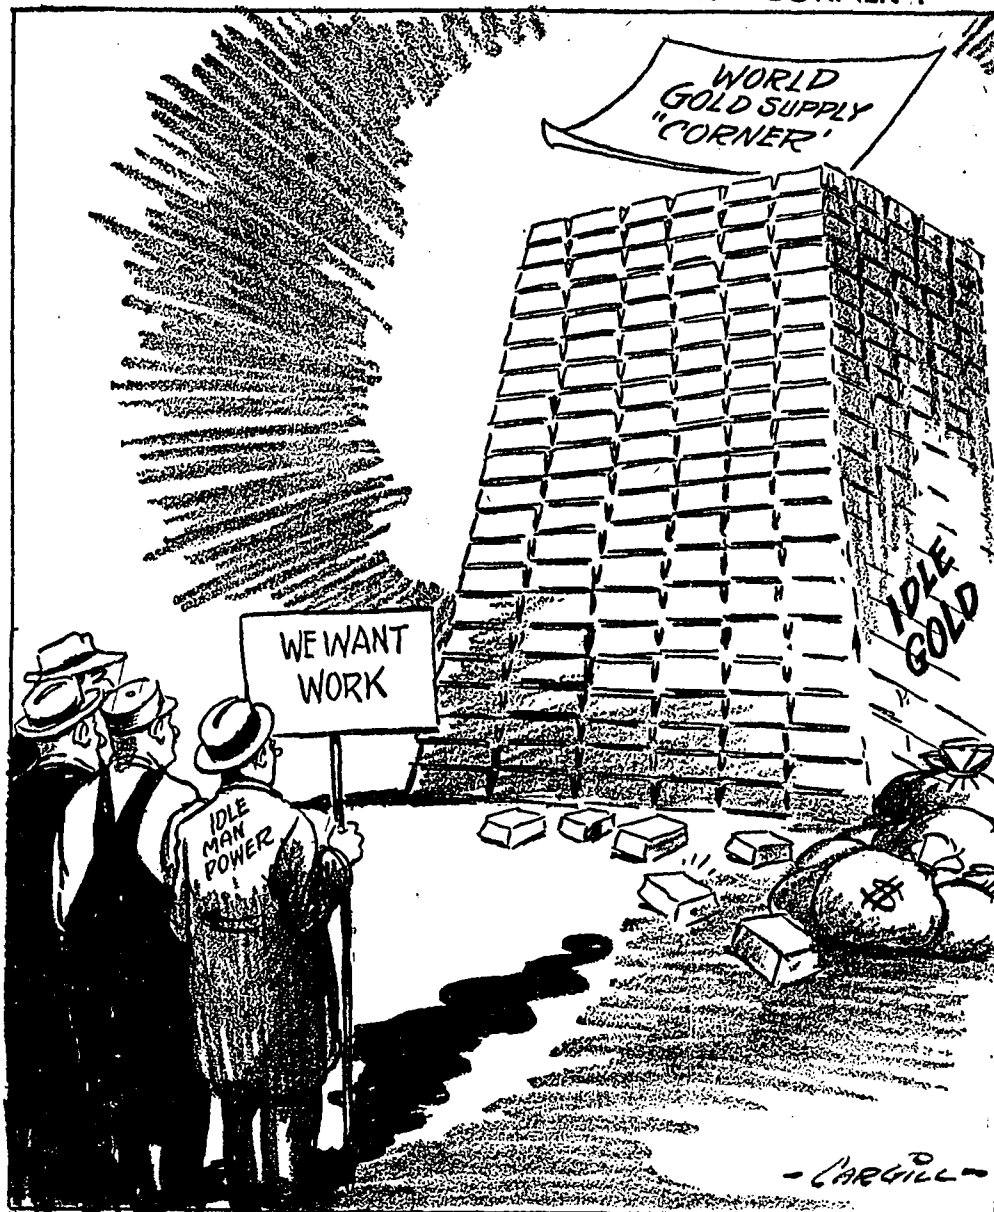

It is a sound faith, and one naturally appealing to America, the leader of democracy in this modern world. Czechoslovakia has become a symbol expressing the hope of many peoples.

It might be said of Dr. Benes' racial brethren that the better Czechs they are, the better Americans they will be. The principles their people represented in Europe they themselves can express here in their lives.

The crisis psychology is overdue in this country, says the president of Princeton University. And sure enough, the baseball hold-outs signed up.

Driving becomes safer as it becomes more courteous. Same with human behavior in general.

IS PROSPERITY JUST AROUND THIS "CORNER"?

BALKAN CAMPAIGN

An interesting sidelight on the Balkan situation is found in what might be called the Tourist Union of Greece, Turkey, Rumania and Yugoslavia. They have recently come to appreciate the value of the tourist crop and the worth of their own picturesque assets, and by uniting their resources they have been able to do some effective advertising.

Their "Visit the Balkans" slogan should attract unusual interest this year. And from present indications they are likely to have plenty of visitors. But unfortunately not the regular tourist trade.

The 1939 guests may take what they want without pay. They may wear military uniforms. And they may remain indefinitely. Hitler and Mussolini seem headed in that direction now.

AFTER THE DICTATORS

"We shall not be able to enjoy ourselves," said Major Vernon Bartlett, independent member of the British parliament, "until Franco's widow tells Stalin on his deathbed that Hitler has been assassinated at Mussolini's funeral."

It is a "smart" remark, but not a very wise one. Too many people think all Europe's problems would be solved—and the problems they cause us—if a few dictators were removed from the scene. That would be temporarily reassuring, of course. Europe seems to have been quiet for a while after Napoleon went to St. Helena.

The truth remains, however, that Mussolini, Hitler, Stalin and Franco all were enabled to grasp their present power because of social, economic and political conditions within their own lands and because of lack of sincere co-operation among all countries and governments. Something more than the violent removal of the dictators will be necessary to cure the ills of the world.

Nearly everybody in Congress and other legislative bodies is for public economy in principle; but when it comes to a recorded vote against an appropriation fund, that's different.

That Hitler thinks himself a better empire-builder than Napoleon or Bismarck hardly seems a reason for the rest of Europe to act as if it were so.

The Japs have a new fishing treaty with Russia, and now for a while they'll fish in untroubled waters.

PEACE AND FOOD IN SPAIN

Madrid is said to be turning rapidly to peacetime activities. Private factories which were turned to the production of war materials are being reconditioned for regular manufacturing operations. Train service with outlying regions is resuming. Air service which was suspended in 1936 is to open soon.

The central market now has fresh fruit and vegetables for sale, foods which have long been lacking in Madrid. Eighty-eight truck loads of food from Portugal and 110,000 pounds of meat were distributed recently to Spaniards long deprived of normal supplies.

It all sounds cheering and hopeful, but it makes one wonder again why the war had to go on so long, and why it ever began. It also makes one wish that another vital contribution to Spain's peace and recovery from war might be made—amnesty to Loyalist leaders and Loyalist followers. At present, such a magnanimous attitude toward the losers seems most unlikely.

WINNING THE NAZIS

News that Dale Carnegie's best-seller, "How to Win Friends and Influence People," is to be published in Rumania, gives a book reviewer an inspired idea. "Now, if Dr. Paul Goebbels," he says, "would only discover Mr. Carnegie's immortal work! There, if you like, is a picture of Goebbels, seated cozily beside the fire, reading aloud while the Reichskanzler and Minister Goering listen in rapt attention."

Such an event, he hints, might make a new and most pleasant man out of Hitler, not to mention his two pals. It would lead to smiles and friendliness and cordial greetings. Then there might be an international kaffee klatch or a tea party completely unlike the grim meeting at Munich last September.

Oh, well, it's a pleasant dream!

There's an argument as to whether the King and Queen of England, when they come, should get a civilian or military salute. How about a college salute? The Electoral College might stand up and rah-rah them.

From recent reports, we gather that all the Japanese not in the army are wandering around the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans in fishing boats, looking for payal secrets.

CORSICANA YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION MET CHATFIELD TUESDAY

The Corsicana Young People's Union met Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at the Chatfield school with the young people of the Methodist church of that community acting as hosts.

Rev. Dick Lowry opened the meeting by leading the group in singing "Stand Up for Jesus." A very impressive and stirring candlelight service used at Easter was presented by the First Methodist church, under the direction of Mrs. R. N. Elliott and George Labban. A miniature cross was placed upon a pedestal, which was flanked by candles. Following the quotations given by George Labban, some young person would come forward to light a candle, then give a short verse.

Those appearing on the program were Richard Knight, Dorothy Love, Rose Marie Martin, James Wilkinson, Lila Jean Brown and Mary Ruth Morton. Mrs. Elliott sang "Beneath the Cross of Christ" and "I Would Be True." "Are You Able?" was sung first by a chorus from First church, then by the entire union. Prayer was led by George Labban and also the league benediction.

Miss Elizabeth McMullan, president of the union, presided over the business session, and appointed a nominating committee composed of Mary Frances Clowe, First church; Canilla Walker, Rice, and Milton Campbell, Eleventh Avenue church.

An excellent recreation hour was enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be at the Eleventh Avenue church in May.

ANNOUNCE FRIDAY AS OPENING DATE WOOLWORTH STORE ONE OF MOST MODERN IN STATE; MANY NEW FEATURES IN EQUIPMENT

One of the most modern variety stores in Central Texas and perhaps in the entire state will be formally opened to the public on Friday, according to an announcement made Tuesday by R. L. Nix, manager of the Corsicana unit of the F. W. Woolworth Company. Located three doors north of the present quarters, which have been occupied by the store for 23 years, the new Woolworth home represents the latest developments in equipment and merchandising arrangements with doubled sales floor space and approximately 90 per cent more storage space.

The new main floor of the store measures 48 by 138 feet, and is equipped throughout with new or refinished counters, wall shelves, and other items. Quick catching of the eye of the prospective customer is the new type of department marker which enables the buyer to locate a given section with ease. All departments of the store have been enlarged and will offer a much larger variety of merchandise.

Additional Employees. Manager Nix stated a number of additional employees would be required to operate the new store and these are now being trained in the old store while the more experienced clerks are engaged in placing new merchandise in the home to be opened on Friday.

Special attention has been paid to lighting equipment and the new home is one of the most brilliantly illuminated stores in this section. Large fans have been installed to provide ample air circulation at all times and a large electric refrigeration unit has been installed to provide ample quantities of ice water for employees and customers.

A slightly elevated platform has been installed behind each counter to aid the clerks in waiting on customers and also to prevent excessive fatigue. The platforms are of hardwood, while the main aisles of the store are finished with inlaid linoleum tile.

Stairways and floors of the storage department are also finished in hardwood. A large electric elevator has been installed to facilitate the handling of the large quantities of merchandise.

Comfortable Lounge. A large girls' lounge and restroom, very comfortably equipped, is located on the second floor of the new building. The men's office on the lower floor has also been doubled in size.

Mr. Nix has been in charge of the Corsicana store for nine years and is slated over the new quarters. He is being assisted in the moving preparations by F. G. Kiddoo, district superintendent, and several trained workers sent in from other stores in Texas. Several representatives of the regional office in St. Louis are expected to be present for the formal opening Friday.

Mr. Nix stated that both stores would be closed all day Thursday while the final transfers are being completed, and the new store would open Friday, and would be open both Friday and Saturday nights for the accommodation of visitors and customers.

Children Treated Dallas Hospitals

Eugene Williamson, Carlton Ray Williamson and Marcheta Langham were taken to Freeman Clinic, Dallas, for treatment, and Annie Lou Steel was taken to St. Paul, Dallas, for treatment. It was reported Tuesday by Mrs. H. G. Brown, local representative of the Texas Society for Crippled Children, and member of the board.

Courthouse News

District Court. The grand jury resumed its investigations Tuesday morning after having been in recess since Thursday.

The jury for the week was excused Monday by District Judge Wayne R. Howell until Wednesday morning.

District Clerk's Office. The following cases were filed: Heirs of W. A. Berry, deceased, vs. R. L. French, to try title and damages.

Willie Brown vs. Carrie Brown, divorce.

Sheriff's Office. County officers, headed by Sheriff Cap Curlington, engaged in an unsuccessful watch from 2 a. m. until daylight Tuesday morning on Highway 76 in an effort to apprehend an alleged hi-jacker from Conroe. The sought man is reported to have been seen speeding in this direction through Buffalo and Centerville. Officers at Centerville shot out tires on the automobile but was unable to apprehend the fugitive. Local officers stated the man sought apparently turned off Highway 76 after being shown away with officers fire at Centerville, and did not continue to Corsicana.

County Court. A judgement for Robert M. Cooksey vs. Frank M. Neville, foreclosure, was returned in county court Monday afternoon.

Beulah Furlow, negro, charged with violation of the prohibition laws, was sentenced to 30 days on the county farm by Paul H. Miller, county judge, after a plea of guilty was entered.

Pat Mitchell pleaded guilty to a charge of operating a common nuisance and was fined $64.45 Tuesday morning by Judge Miller. A charge of violating the prohibition laws filed some time ago against the defendant was dismissed.

Warranty Deeds. W. E. Gathright to Alvin George Miller, 4 acres of the R. R. Goodloe survey, $950.

Jane Ingram, et al, to Ester D. Thompson, 2 acres of the John Henry survey near Rural Shade, $300.

Mamie Rogers McElwraith, et al, to B. V. Piper, et ux, a lot in block 612, West Park Road, Corsicana, $800.

George H. Kent, et al, to A. C. Kent, 267.2 acres of the S. F. Reeves, John Shover and J. W. Hendricks surveys, $5 and other considerations.

Marriage License. S. J. DuBoise and Mrs. Clive Pierce Douglas.

Justice Court. One was fined on a drunkenness charge by Judge A. E. Foster.

One was assessed a fine on a charge of drunkenness by Judge Pat Geraughty.

The Wm. Galloways Rejoicing as Result Arrival of Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. William Galloway are rejoicing over the arrival of a lovely little baby daughter at the Corsicana Hospital and Clinic on Sunday, April 16, 1939, at the early hour of 5:45 a. m. The pretty name of Linda Louise has been chosen for the little lady, who tipped the scales at five pounds and fourteen ounces. Her mother was the former Miss Pauline McLeod, daughter of Mrs. Eula McLeod of Corpus Christi, a former Corsicanan, who arrived Monday to be with her daughter and granddaughter. Mr. and Mrs. Galloway's and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Galloway's and Mrs. McLeod's many friends join in extending to them their hearty congratulations and good wishes.

INVESTIGATION OF SALE OF BASEBALL TICKETS REPORTED

Although no official announcement was forthcoming, it is understood that the Navarro county grand jury Tuesday morning launched an investigation into the alleged "lottery" baseball ticket selling in Corsicana.

It is understood that a number of witnesses and persons selling the baseball tickets in this vicinity were summoned before the probers.

Whether the investigations said to be under way is the beginning of a widespread drive against various types of gambling was not immediately ascertained.

Sale of baseball tickets is alleged to have flourished here for years.

Chas. T. Banister, criminal district attorney, recently warned against operation of punchboards against Navarro county.

Punchboards, however, are still in evidence in numerous establishments in Corsicana.

Slot machines have been seized and in some instances condemnation proceedings have been instituted.

TRAINING SESSION BOY SCOUTS WORK MEETS TONIGHT

The third session of the Boy Scout Training program meets tonight at St. John's Episcopal Church parish house, Prof. O. F. Allen said. Y MODERNIZATION PLANS AND ACTIVITY WORK DISCUSSED

EARLY REPORT ON PROGRESS OF SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN BE MADE

Modernization plans and Y. M. C. A. activity work were discussed by the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. when that body met Wednesday night. Beauford H. Jester, president, presided.

R. L. Wheelock was unable to attend the meeting as previously announced, but was represented by W. C. Stroube, Mr. Jester said. Mr. Wheelock and Mr. Stroube are now contacting a list of major subscribers and a report will be forthcoming in the near future, Mr. Jester said. A meeting of division leaders of the modernization campaign was called for Thursday. Plans will be made for a meeting of campaign workers and captains to be held at an early date at which time a complete summary of the modernization situation will be submitted.

Pat Ramsey, general secretary, announced at the meeting Wednesday that a lease had been signed with the Magnolia Company giving the Y. M. C. A. authority to develop Magnolia Field as a softball grounds.

The negro branch of the Y. M. C. A. was discussed and Sydney Marks, Ed Polk, and J. H. Sullivan were appointed from the board to sponsor this work.

J. N. Garlity reported on the picnic recently given by the Y. M. C. A. sponsored Friendship Club by the city's luncheon clubs. A report on boys' work was made by W. P. McCammon.

Verbal reports from the Y. M. C. A. staff were heard on general work of the association. Lynn Sanders reported on thrift activities that are being encouraged among the boys. A vote of thanks was extended to S. B. Dickens for his co-operation in securing Magnolia Field for softball activities.

Speaker Interfaith Patriotic Meeting

DR. WILLIAM C. BURTON

A group of nationally known speakers will appear on the interfaith Patriotic meeting program to be presented in the senior high school auditorium on Friday, April 28, at 8 p. m., according to information received from the sponsoring agency.

The theme of the meeting will be "Justice, Amity and Co-Operation" among all religious groups and socially-minded Americans, and preparations for the meeting are being handled by a committee of representative Corsicans citizens embracing nearly every faith and creed.

Among the speakers will be Dr. William C. Burton, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Kansas City, Mo. Dr. Burton is a native Texan, and was graduated from Trinity University, the Presbyterian Seminary of Chicago, and Columbia University, New York City.

He served as a first lieutenant in aviation and as a chaplain in the World War, and for ten years was pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church at Waco. For a number of years he was assistant to the late Dr. S. Parks Cadman, internationally known minister, later serving as pastor of the Immanuel Presbyterian Church at Kansas City for seven years and for the past three years he has been pastor of the First Congregational Church in the same city.

BARRY PUPILS HAD INTERESTING TIME AT MUSIC FESTIVAL

BARRY, April 20.—(Sp.)—County Superintendent and Mrs. J. C. Watson and daughter, and Misses Ruby Thornton and Mary Everheart, teachers in the Barry school, accompanied six girls from Barry school to the music festival, which was held in San Antonio, April 14-15. After the program, which was presented in the municipal auditorium, the group secured a special guide and toured the city of San Antonio. Places of special educational interest included Brackenridge Park and Museum, Fort Sam Houston, the Alamo, Missions San Jose and Concepcion, the Spanish governor's Palace, Little Mexico, the beautiful residential sections, and schools.

Visit Granite Mountain. On the return trip the group visited other places of interest. At Marble Falls they made a side trip to Granite Mountain, from which the granite was secured to build the State Capitol at Austin.

From the mountain the group went to the Longhorn Cavern, one of the scenic wonders of the United States. This cave, the third largest in the United States, affords an experience that every Texas should have.

The next place of interest was the $7,000,000 Buchanan dam on the Colorado river near Burnet, Texas. From the dam, the group went to Austin, where they saw the capitol, the governor's mansion, O. Henry's home, the university of Texas, and many other places of interest.

Trips Educational. The teachers and patrons of the school feel that such trips are very educational and that the students should have the opportunity to make them more often.

Students who made the trip to San Antonio are Francis Marie Freeman, Wanda Jane Ragan, Francine Nicholson, Bobbie Ray, Billie Jo Russell, and Elvise Brooks.

News of County Home Demonstration Clubs

Pursley 4H Club
"Use bright colors that blend well on the peasant apron," said Miss Clara E. Retiger, county home demonstration agent to the Pursley 4H Club girls, Thursday morning, April 13th, in the school auditorium.

The peasant aprons are made unbleached domestic, trimmed around the bottom, at the top of the bib with four colors of bias tape. After this demonstration, and patterns in which she told the club that before a dress can be made successfully the pattern must be read. If two holes are close together on the edge of the pattern it means to lay the pattern on the fold of the material.

WPA UNION LEADER ADmits COMMUNIST COMMITTEE HEARING

PROBERS ACCUSED TRYING MAKE HEADLINES RATHER THAN DO ASSIGNED TASK

WASHINGTON, April 18.—(P)—Herbert Benjamin, general secretary of the Workers Alliance, told the house committee investigating the WPA today he is a member of the communist party.

In response to questions, he said he did not believe in overthrow of the United States government by force. He added he saw nothing inconsistent in what he believed to be the philosophy of the communist party and the institutions and beliefs of a democracy form of government.

The witness denied, in reply to a question, he had reported to the Third Internationale that formation of the Workers Alliance represented the success of a campaign by the communist party.

The witness asserted that in his official capacity he confined his utterances to the view of the alliance and did not indulge his private beliefs.

The witnesses, David Lasser, national president, and Herbert Benjamin, general secretary of the alliance, drew an immediate reprimand from members of the committee when they sought to protest formally against the line of the committee's questioning.

The Workers Alliance, of which Benjamin is secretary and David Lasser president, is an organization of WPA workers.

Benjamin said he had been a member of the communist party for about 18 years and had held official positions in that party. He denied he had ever represented the party in conventions held in Russia although he testified earlier he had been in the Soviet Union prior to becoming an Alliance officer.

Benjamin also said that among contributions totaling $11,235 received by the organization during the 15 months was one donation of $7,000 from the United Auto Workers of America.

At the start of the day's hearing Lasser and Benjamin accused the committee in a formal statement "of a feverish attempt to make a few newspaper headlines—to manufacture a scandal."

Accuses Committee. The committee heard Lasser and Benjamin accused the committee in a formal statement "of a feverish attempt to make a few newspaper headlines—to manufacture a scandal."

Asserting the committee had "practically ignored" the subject it was directed to investigate, the administration of the WPA—the officials declared the committee called the alliance officials to be questioned apparently "on their political beliefs, their past history, the jobs they have held, the clubs they belong to."

The statement added: "If this committee believes our organization is subversive, it should say so and then take the responsibility of proving it."

HOLC Chairman Is Opposed Moratorium

WASHINGTON, April 18.—(P)—Appeals to congress for lower interest rates and a moratorium on foreclosures by the Home Owners Loan corporation brought a statement from the HOLC today that the proposals would subvert a minority without achieving any constructive social purpose.

While several hundred persons from New York and other sections were appearing before the house banking committee in support of mortgage relief, John H. Fahey, HOLC chairman, addressed a letter on the subject to members of the committee.

"The establishment of a moratorium would place a burden of millions of dollars on other taxpayers and might force the corporation to default on its bonds," he said.

Spokesmen for the group which called on congressional committees contended extension of the amortization period from 15 to 30 years would cut payments on principal in half and save many homes from foreclosures.

But Fahey's letter said such a policy would bring relief to few if any borrowers threatened with foreclosure, and that it would involve expenditure of "up to $50,000,000 in rewriting all current loans."

Hearings Adjourned. The senate territories committee today adjourned hearings on the Philippine independence bill until June to allow President Quezon to appear before the committee in person.

Chairman Tydings (D-Md) issued a formal statement following the adjournment saying "the committee feels it would be wise to withhold action until it can acquire a more complete view of the American position."

Tydings said the committee had been informed President Quezon was likely to visit the United States in June.

Sen. Osmena, vice president of the Philippines, said he had information about President Quezon planning to visit the United States. Osmena added he learned from a reliable source that disturbed conditions in the Philippines were a real reason for the committee postponing action on the bill.

He said he believed the action might have some connection with the sudden return of the United States fleet to Pacific waters.

OIL INDUSTRY IS APPARENTLY HOLDING ITS OWN AND SIGNS OF BETTER BUSINESS AHEAD GOOD

By ALFRED WALL
TULSA, Okla., April 19.—(P)—The oil industry appeared today to have no reason to brag about its week's performance but at the same time it was indicated no ground had been lost and signs continued favorable for good business in the late spring and summer.

A blast of cold weather across the country boded no good for the immediate consumption level of motor fuel. Drilling was reported slowed down again by the weather in many areas.

Executives here reported markets, prices and demand about the same.

The international situation came in for sharp attention wherever oil men gathered. It was agreed a general European war inevitably would have an effect on the petroleum industry, with its world-wide ramifications.

Commentators pointed out conditions now were vastly different from those of the petroleum industry, then during the world war. Consumption now is about twice that it was then.

Some observers were inclined to think a war would not greatly increase the petroleum consumption of the world as a whole but that problems of transportation and manufacturing would cause vast changes in the world oil set-up. If European and Asiatic powers were involved in a great war it was held quite possible that oil-producing countries in this hemisphere would be called on to produce a bigger proportion of the world's petroleum supply.

In the mid-continent area the same strong gasoline market continued. Jobbers complained they were unable to get supplies at the prices they were willing to pay and wondered how much finished materials was being held for higher prices.

Lubricants were strong and tractor fuel was moving at a brisk pace.

The drilling fraternity had its ears cocked toward the new and untold forecast city basin area centering in northern Missouri.

In Kansas busy drillers reported Monday opening of that state's eleventh new pool of the year and the following day strikes were reported which indicated three pool extensions.

United States well completions for the week were about the same, the Oil and Gas Journal reporting 463 for this week compared to 468 for last week.

MAY ROBSON, ACTRESS, LOOKS BACK ON SEVENTY-FIVE ACTIVE AND VERY INTERESTING YEARS

HOLLYWOOD, April 19.—(P)—May Robson, 75 and proud to admit it, looked back today on three-quarters of a century filled with "mighty pleasant memories."

But she didn't look back long. For May Robson, at an age when most women are looking for their hands and rocks placidly in her favorite chair, is far less interested in the past than in the future.

She hopes to be acting when she is 100. But she wants to live no longer than she is able to act; she wanted to die in the harness—not "going to seed or lying in bed like a loafer."

Activity is the keynote of May Robson's life.

She proved her durability during the past year by making four pictures and a dozen guest appearances, playing 13 weeks of radio and wearing influenza, canine poisoning and extraction of the first teeth she ever lost.

May Robson was born in a suburb of Melbourne, Australia. She came here in her middle years, via France, Belgium and England. At 19 she went on the stage. For 58 years she has been one of the theater's leading figures.

In recognition of her contributions, her boss, Jack L. Warner, Great and small of the film industry, her friends in society and public life were invited.

May Robson has earned the esteem in which the holds her by the simple expedient of being herself, working hard and obviously enjoying it.

A visit to the home of the industry's only great-grandmother, an elderly Hillsides actress, notable for its striking informality. It's like going to see Aunt Mary, in Bridgeport.

LITTLE PENNSYLVANIA BOY IS NEW QUESTION MARK IN FIGHT ON CANCER BY MEDICAL WORLD

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor
NEW YORK, April 18.—(P)—Two-and-a-half year old Harold Holt, Jr. of Monongahela, Pa., is a new question mark in medicine's fight on one of the inscrutable forms of cancer.

The question is whether he will be an example of hope for conquering one of cancer's incurable forms, known as Wilms' tumor.

Hardly more than a month ago he had this cancer in lungs, liver and his one remaining kidney. He was discharged from a Pittsburgh hospital with probability of living two weeks.

Today there is no cancer to be found in any of his organs, and he has been discharged from another hospital, apparently with years to live. Whether the cancer will come back is not known.

There are many who say the cure, and then medicine hopes it will know better what to do in other cases.

In both hospitals Harold received the same treatment, X-rays. But in the latter institution a different technique was used. This means mainly a difference in the sharp-shooting with the rays. They destroy any tissue, and the problem is to destroy cancer without damaging too much healthy tissue. The X-rays are slow but sure, their effects are not immediate, and consequently medical experts are constantly developing more skill in "shootings" them.

Wilms' tumor has its origin in a growth known as teratoma, which is in the body at birth.

Sooner or later this cancerous tissue begins to grow. In medical history there are less than a dozen cases reported as cured. X-rays have frequently reduced the growth. But almost invariably it has struck again, sometimes after appearing to wait five years. The cures were made by surgery after X-rays had reduced the cancer to operable limits.

SUPREME COURT'S DECISION IN STRECKER CASE BRINGS DEMAND FOR STRONG LAW ABOUT ALIENS

WASHINGTON, April 18.—(P)—The supreme court's decision blocking deportation of Joseph C. Strecker, a German-born communist, brought demands in congress today for strengthening the laws affecting aliens in this country.

Several legislators said they would offer new proposals to meet the situation created by the court's ruling.

The court held the fact Strecker once belonged to an organization which advocated overthrow of the government by force and violence was not adequate grounds for deportation.

It said if congress intended to make the deportation laws applicable to past membership in such groups "the purpose of the laws has been clearly stated."

Strecker, an Austrian-born restaurant operator of Hot Springs, Ark., admitted he had belonged to the communist party for three months in 1932-33.

Termining the decision a blow to law enforcement, Rep. Hobbs (D-Ala) said he would propose expulsion of any alien who, at any time, had been a member of an organization which advocated the overthrow of the government by force and violence.

Hobbs said the court's decision seemed to justify Secretary Perkins in suspending deportation proceedings against Harry Bridges, CIO West Coast maritime leader, until the Strecker case was decided. Labor department lawyers are studying the Strecker ruling before deciding whether to proceed further against Bridges, accused of being an alien communist.

The house judiciary committee recently dismissed impeachment charges against Miss Perkins which were based largely on her department's procedure in the Strecker and Bridges cases.

Rep. Dies committee on un-American activities, said the Strecker decision should expedite senate approval of his bill, already passed by the house, calling for deportation of an alien who advocates "any change" in the United States form of government.

Panama Canal Bill Approved. WASHINGTON, April 18.—(P)—The house merchant marine committee approved today a bill authorizing improvement and enlargement of the Panama Canal.

The legislation was sought for the purpose of "more adequately providing for the defense of the Panama Canal and for increasing its capacity for the needs of inter-oceanic shipping."

The bill authorizes appropriations up to $27,000,000 for work on the canal. The initial appropriation for the fiscal year beginning July 1 would be limited to $15,000,000.

Committee Sponsors Bill. WASHINGTON, April 18.—(P)—The house rivers and harbors committee approved today by a vote of 40 to 5 a bill to authorize construction of a $28,700,000 navigation dam on the Columbia river at Unalakleet Rapids, between Oriskany and Wapinitia, and a bridge across the river at Unalakleet.

The dam would be one of the largest structures in the world.

DR. H. L. PRITCHETT DADS CLUB SPEAKER TUESDAY EVENING

COMMITTEE NAMED NOMINATE OFFICERS; SPONSOR FOOTBALL GAME

Dr. H. L. Pritchett, professor of sociology in Southern Methodist University, Dallas, was the principal speaker at the April session of the Corsicana Dads Club at the senior high school auditorium Tuesday evening. His interesting address was concerning the relations of parents and children in the present day civilization. A nominating committee to report suggested officers at the May meeting for the 1939-1940 school year was elected. Announcements relative to the ticket sales for the Blue and Gold football game, April 27, were made.

The nominating committee elected to select nominations for consideration of a club at the May meeting. It was composed of Paul Moore, W. Art Martin, H. R. Stroube, Fred W. Blucher and Dr. A. B. Hirsch.

Dr. Pritchett was introduced by Fred W. Blucher, chairman of the program committee.

The speaker gave many experiences in his social work through the years, showing how young people can be at the best of their efforts in persons who have been difficult and rebellious. In his beginning of his talk, Dr. Pritchett spoke of the highly scientific study and training in all lines with the exception of marriage and parenthood, two vitally important factors in the well-being of the home.

Lock of Training. He termed marriage and parenthood training in the main treated as that of primitive man. He urged that parents get their children's attitudes, likes, dislikes and intelligent angle rather than from an emotion angle. He said that children inherited only physical traits from the parents, while they get their attitudes, likes, dislikes from environments, facial expressions, statements, etc., from the parents and others with whom they are associated in the early years of their lives.

Turning to another portion of his message, the speaker said whipping a child might cause outward obedience but rebellion will still be inside the child. He pointed out that corporal punishment was a survival of the middle ages when the body was punished to cleanse the soul, according to some of the olden days. He said it was much better to discuss problems and work out the right solutions of the youngsters as an understanding friend than to punish, criticize or denigrate the youth who has made a mistake.

Distinct Personalities. Dr. Pritchett warned against parents trying to make children extensions of their lives and business. He said the children do not belong to the parents to do as they wish them to do and urged parents not to forget that their children were distinct personalities in society.

The speaker said there were many grown-up babies who fuss and fight worse than youngsters, and declared that a husband and wife should be able to talk over their differences and solve them at an understanding of the other's point of view without trouble. He declared that a child was adversely affected by parents who quarrel and is torn between two loyalties, making it nervous and emotional.

"We should be the guide, friend and counselor of children," Dr. Pritchett stated.

He stressed the importance of wholesome recreation as the cheapest thing a community can spend for character building. He said that Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Camp Fire, Scouts, and similar institutions supplement and aid the influence and work of the home and church for the betterment of the youngsters.

Dr. Pritchett pointed out how undeveloped emotional characteristics caused unsettled and abnormal personalities. He said nervous break-downs are caused by emotions.

"Hitler is emotionally an infant," Dr. Pritchett stated, and predicted that the German ruler would soon go to pieces and either commit suicide or go insane when he is faced with opposition, and declared that Hitler is now clinging alone to Mussolini, the Italian dictator, for support.

Let children make decisions, he pleaded. He urged that parents "catch up" with the conditions their youngsters face that are much different than those of the parents during the same periods in their lives. He urged the parents to guide the youngsters with love and understanding but not try to go with their emotions and be swayed by the "problem child" who generally has one or two problem parents," Dr. Pritchett stated.

The speaker answered numerous questions propounded him by interested persons.

O'DANIEL GRANTS CUSTOMARY STAY IN EXECUTION NEGRO

AUSTIN, April 18.—(P)—Governor W. Lee O'Daniel announced today he had granted his customary 30-day stay of execution to James Earl Ray, a white woman, who had been scheduled to die in the electric chair tonight.

The governor, who favors abolition of capital punishment, has granted his constitutionally-limited 30-day reprieve in every death case since he took office last January.

C. A. Andrews, chairman of the pardons board, said the board had unanimously favored the negro's execution tonight.

Andrews said the 30-year-old white man had been criminally assaulted a 64-year-old white woman in her home after midnight on June 19, 1938, and that the board could find no mitigating circumstances in the case.

DISCUSS PROPOSED MILK ROUTE SYSTEM IN NAVARRO COUNTY

SENTIMENT REPORTED FAVORING CENTRAL TEXAS CHAMBER COMMERCE

An extended discussion of the possibilities of establishing a milk route system in Navarro county brought out a variety of views at the regular meeting of the board of directors of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce Tuesday morning. The unanimous opinion was expressed that a successful system was possible.

At the beginning of the meeting President J. M. Dyer asked J. N. Edens to report on a conference held in Waco Monday in regard to organization of a Central Texas Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Edens stated that most of the counties to be included in the regional unit were represented and there was a strong sentiment in favor of the project and the only deterring factor might be the inability of securing proper financial support. He urged as many of the dairymen as possible to be able to attend the principal meeting at Waco next Friday.

At this time, R. W. Knight reviewed some negotiations and talks with officials of the Borden Milk Company at Waco and Mexico, and asserted that it would not be possible to establish a system for some time because the dairy farmers would require some means to secure a sufficient feed supply and also to acquire the proper type cows. He asserted that dairymen and beef cattle production could be carried on together on most farms.

Borden Officials Here. John Hutto, field representative of the Borden Milk Company at Mexico, was introduced, and in turn presented E. E. McInnis, Waco, Mr. Waters said his firm was convinced that the surface had not been scratched either on the consumption or production angles of milk in the Southwest, and that there was pronounced trend toward the establishment of more plants and development of consumption and production in this area, because of the possibilities of cheap milk production, increased consumption, and lower shipping costs.

The Waco official cited examples of mistakes made in starting milk plants and urged against their repetition. He said that he did not see the possibility of many exclusive dairymen in the business but the milk routes could be valuable methods of increasing farm revenues through the milk checks sent out twice monthly. He asserted a sufficient volume of production must be built up before any reliable firm would consider the establishment of a processing plant of any kind in Corsicana, but that until such a time as that volume was reached the market at Mexico would be available.

Market for Milk. He declared that regardless of financial conditions there was always a market for milk and milk products, as this commodity was willing at all times to supply the market, and augment it with any advice and suggestions needed or available. Mr. Waters stated the Borden Company operated no routes except those from cooling stations to the main plant, and said there was no possibility of establishing a cooling plant at Corsicana at the present time with nearby markets available.

Mr. Hutto again took the floor and explained the foundations upon which the routes are built, which included steady production, good quality of milk, and good records, answering numerous questions connected with the operation of the routes and the profits to the producers.

Dr. C. F. McKennie of Mexico, a patron of a milk route, then presented a typical example of the gross receipts possible from milk sales. He said he had found this country admirably suited for milk and would be glad to trade his cotton business to West Texas for the livestock. He said he had found that farmers who diversified and had several sources of income generally had better credit ratings than those who practiced the one-crop system.

Plan Is Discussed. Dr. W. E. McKinney, chairman of the dairy committee of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce, related his experience with the original milk routes in Mexico, and said he was willing to start out in Navarro county if it was thought advisable.

In the discussion that ensued, most of the directors agreed that feed must be secured first, both pastures and ensilage. Mr. Hutto said that about 2,000 pounds of milk or 200 gallons would be about a minimum for the establishment of a route.

Mr. Edens took the floor again to state that the section of the country between the Trinity and Brazos rivers was the greatest section in the state or nation for livestock and with proper management pasturage would be available the year round. He declared the dairymen was available and that a program should be started immediately to secure the feed and get the routes started if any were planned at all.

Just prior to adjournment it was indicated that a meeting of the dairymen committee would be called soon to map out definite plans and a general program along this line.

JUNIOR HI-CLUB PRESENTS PROGRAM CIVITANS THURSDAY

DISCUSSION PROGRAM ON VARIOUS ASPECTS OF WAR WAS HEARD

The Junior Hi-Y club presented the program for the Corsicana Civitan club when the club met Thursday noon at the Navarro Hotel. The Hi-Y boys presented a discussion program on the various aspects of war which was recently presented before their own group at a Hi-Y meeting.

Members of the Hi-Y Club participated in the program were Jay Marvin Wolens, club president; Darrell Hester, Lewis Willeford, "Bud" Levy, Ralph Knight, Joe Daniels, John McAdams, and E. V. Dawson.

Hester served as master of ceremonies, introducing the boys and stating their subjects. In an introductory address, Ralph Knight traced the development of situations that led to the world war and carried the war through its various offensive and defensive campaigns. Joe Daniels spoke on the current situation and happenings in Europe and outlined motives behind the movements of Hitler and Mussolini.

John McAdams spoke on "Who Gains in War?" McAdams brought out that humanity suffers while the munitions makers profit from war. "We Don't Want War," was the theme of the speech made by E. V. Dawson.

Entertainment on the program was by "Bud" Levy who played "Deep Purple" on the piano. The program was concluded with a patriotic poem read by Hester followed by a recitation of the oath of allegiance made by the entire club. Wolens and Hester shared presiding honors.

Civilians Contribute. The Corsicana Civitan Club voted to make a five dollar contribution to the Red Cross Relief fund for the Richland Community Thursday at their regular meeting.

HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR PERSONALITY

USE INTELLIGENCE IN EATING

Today I give you the last day of the Housecleaning Diet. By this time all of you should have lost a few pounds—a n d I don't suppose you feel too badly about that! But if you were already underweight, and have lost some weight, don't feel concerned about all. Let me tell you why:

The average Veronica Dengel adult accumulates a certain amount of mucus which is distributed throughout the system. This has weight just as does anything else. When you begin to 'clean-house' or 'detoxicate' this mucus is what is thrown off, or eliminated. And it was the weight drops off for a short time.

But, on the other hand, it was most important to get rid of this accumulation of waste material because it was quite possible that it was the very reason you could not gain weight. You see, the intestinal tract is lined with thousands of little 'pores' called villi, whose purpose it is to draw the nourishment out of your food, and thence to throw it into the blood stream for distribution throughout the system. Now—if these 'villi' are coated with mucus, naturally all the nourishment cannot be taken from your food as it passes by, and regardless of how much you eat, you can not gain weight. But take away this mucus, and you will get more value from your food and consequently utilize it to better advantage.

This is why it is so important for underweight people to use foods which will dissolve this mucus. So don't worry if you have lost weight—you'll gain it.

all back again, and more besides, until you have reached your normal weight.

And, my overweight friends, just remember: now that you've lost those excess pounds—keep them off by intelligent eating.

BARBER BILL HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL ATTORNEY GENERAL

MANN DECLARES BOARD INVESTED WITH POWERS LEGISLATURE CAN'T EXERCISE

AUSTIN, April 19.—(AP)—Attorney General Gerald C. Mann, in an opinion requested by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, today ruled unconstitutional the barbers bill which would provide a scale of minimum prices for barber services.

Mann's opinion said the bill, passed by the legislature and now on the governor's desk for signature, would confer upon the State Board of Barbers examiners "an unbridled and arbitrary discretion to approve or disapprove agreements submitted by the barbers of any county in the state."

The attorney general said the necessary effect of the bill would be to vest the board with powers the legislature itself could not constitutionally exercise.

Mann did not rule on the price fixing provisions of the act. "So far as the entire act is concerned, it gives to the board an unlimited authority to pass on agreements as it may see fit," the opinion said. "Whenever a scale of minimum prices for barber services shall have been agreed upon, signed, and submitted to the board of examiners by organized and representative groups of barbers of at least 85 per cent of the licensed barbers in any county of this state, the board shall have the power to approve or disapprove such agreements and to declare and establish within such county, by official order, the minimum price for any and all work for service usually performed in barber shops."

The only limitation upon the authority of the board is that if it approves an agreement submitted by the barbers of a particular county, the minimum price for haircuts may not be set at exceeding 40 cents.

"Under our system of government, the exclusive authority to enact laws is vested by the constitution in the legislature. The legislature is not permitted to delegate that power. The act, however, does more than vest the board of legislative authority. Its necessary effect is to vest the board with powers which the legislature itself could not constitutionally exercise."

SENATE REFUSES TO CONFIRM HOUSTONIAN HIGHWAY COMMISSION

WEALTHY SOUTH TEXAN REJECTED TUESDAY AS THIRD TURN-DOWN

AUSTIN, April 18.—(AP)—The senate today rejected appointment of J. M. West, Sr., as chairman of the highway commission.

The action was in executive session.

One of the richest men in the southwest, West was Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's third selection for the commission vacancy created by expiration of the six-year term of John Wood of El Paso, Feb. 15.

The first appointee was Carr P. Collins, insurance company executive of Dallas, who was rejected.

The second was J. C. Hunter, oil and behind closed doors, whose name was withdrawn at his request after sharp controversy within the senate.

Close friend of the governor, Collins was refused confirmation, although he had been confirmed in Dallas.

Critics urged his appointment would give Dallas two representatives on the highway commission. Harry Hines, another commissioner, resides in that city. They also urged a deep East Texas soundness.

The last contention also was waged by a group of East Texas senators against the Hunter appointment. Criticism was so strong that O'Daniel withdrew the nomination.

Three Men Rejected Rejection of three men to the highway commission, laid major position the governor must fill before September when he may name a state auditor and a state bank commissioner, shattered precedent.

The position is of unusual importance because of the huge sums the commission spends annually and the tremendous interest throughout the state in highway building. It pays a salary of $4,000 a year.

The senate committee on governor's nominations favorably reported West's appointment last week after questioning him 40 minutes behind closed doors.

Reports were the lumber-cattle-oil-ranchman was asked whether if he were confirmed he would give the office attention ahead of all other interests and replied he would do so.

Early Reaction Favorable Immediately after his appointment was announced, reaction among senators seemed to be very favorable but subsequently opposition developed.

Chief opinion seemed based on belief of some that because of his vast business West might not be able or willing to give the public office proper attention and also not get temperamentally into it.

Openly it was charged he was a strong supporter of the constitutional democrats who in the last presidential campaign backed the republican Landon against Franklin D. Roosevelt and John F. Kennedy.

In Austin for the committee hearing West made no bones that he was opposed to the new deal, declaring if the senate wanted a new dealer for the commission chairmanship it would have to find another man.

Strong opinion was expressed after the committee meeting and a favorable report that West would be confirmed, some senators asserting his frank answering of questions, especially about his relations with constitutional democrats, had reacted for confirmation.

Proceedings Guarded. In executive sessions of the senate, proceedings are closely guarded, and only the final action is made public.

The senate worked most of the morning on government departmental appointments by the senate, before noon Senator Allan Shivers of Port Arthur, chairman of the committee on governor's nominations, arose and said:

"Mr. President, I ask that the senate go into executive session at 10 minutes to twelve o'clock."

This was agreed upon by unanimous consent, press correspondents, senate employees except Secretary Eob Barber and all spectators left the floor and galleries and the doors of the big senate hall were closed.

At 12:45 p. m. the doors were thrown open and the senate's action made public.

Commenting on the action Senator Weaver Moore of Houston, West's home city, said:

"I'm very sorry, I don't want to criticize the senate but I believe they made a mistake."

Hardin Comments. On the other hand, Senator Does Hardin of Waco remarked:

ELEEMOSYNARY BILL APPROVED IN RECORD TIME ON TUESDAY

APPROXIMATELY $14,333,000 CARRIED IN APPROPRIATION BILL SENT SENATE

AUSTIN, April 18.—(AP)—In near-record time, the house today passed and sent the senate the eleemosynary appropriation bill, the first of the five major money measures.

The senate meanwhile tackled the first of the money bills to come before it, that providing a substantial aid in allotments to state departments.

The house considered the eleemosynary bill only for hours and changes were negligible. It specifies an appropriation of approximately $14,333,000, some $870,000 less than the allotment for the current biennium.

Sharp criticism of the management of the Austin State Hospital and the state board of control was expressed by Rep. W. J. Gallbreath of Wharton in an argument against the final passage of the proposal. The house, however, recorded an 113-7 vote for its passage.

"Grave charges have been brought against the management of the Austin State Hospital," Gallbreath said, "and I think they should be investigated. About 200 patients of whiskey and some other supplies disappeared out there and records were kept. The board of control is trying to do a little whitewashing. I'm losing confidence in the board of control and believe they ought to be investigated."

The board of control supervises insane hospitals and other eleemosynary institutions.

Rejected Two Amendments. The senate rejected two amendments to the bill. One, by Rep. J. Bryan Bradbury of Abilene, would have increased the number of attendants at the insane hospitals and fixed their minimum pay at $45 a month. Another proposed to boost the pay of pharmacists at the institutions.

The lawmakers must dispose of the five major money bills before they go home. The constitution suggested that the regular session last 120 days, under which adjournment would come May 9, but the legislature went on the opinion the session would last until May 20 or 27.

The house refused immediate adoption of a resolution calling for a special house committee investigation of the sale of liquor under doctors' prescriptions in dry territory. The resolution, introduced by John Bell, anti-prohibitionist representative from Cuero, was referred to the liquor traffic committee.

Would Strengthen Laws. Bell said he wanted to strengthen laws regulating liquor sales "so that the people never again will have to live under prohibition as they had to do for 16 years."

Dr. R. C. Elmer, Jr., of El Paso, a dry city, said he was in sympathy with Bell's objective but the legislature was powerless to correct the situation because a federal statute permitted physicians to write many liquor prescriptions as they desired.

Other representatives took the position either the legislature could strengthen enforcement statutes without investigation or it was the duty of the state liquor control board to make any needed improvement in the enforcement.

Relative investigation of old pension organizations which solicit contributions from old people had been filed in the house but did not come up because of the absence of the author, James E. Taylor of Kerens.

Ask Education Aid. Without discussion, the house adopted a resolution asking congress to pass a pending bill providing for a state education fund.

The senate worked most of the morning on government departmental appointments by the senate, before noon Senator Allan Shivers of Port Arthur, chairman of the committee on governor's nominations, arose and said:

"Mr. President, I ask that the senate go into executive session at 10 minutes to twelve o'clock."

This was agreed upon by unanimous consent, press correspondents, senate employees except Secretary Eob Barber and all spectators left the floor and galleries and the doors of the big senate hall were closed.

At 12:45 p. m. the doors were thrown open and the senate's action made public.

Commenting on the action Senator Weaver Moore of Houston, West's home city, said:

"I'm very sorry, I don't want to criticize the senate but I believe they made a mistake."

Hardin Comments. On the other hand, Senator Does Hardin of Waco remarked:

"The senate did a good job. We would have been in bad shape if a gentleman who spent his money for the republican party had been named chairman of the Texas highway commission."

Ten days after Senator Hardin had announced opposition to West because of his affiliation with the constitutional democrats and had predicted West would be nominated.

He said appointment of West would seriously injure relations between the highway department and federal highway officials.

West was reported to be in Houston. Governor O'Daniel was at lunch when the rejection was announced and could not be reached immediately for comment.

Woman Narrowly Escapes Death; Struck by Train

Mrs. S. E. Atwood, 518 East Eleventh avenue, aged 77 years, miraculously escaped instant death shortly after 11 o'clock Tuesday morning near her home when she was struck by the northbound Zephyr passenger train on the Burlington and Rock Island Lines.

Witnesses said Mrs. Atwood was walking across the track when struck. They are quoted as saying that she was tossed into the air and aside of the speeding train, falling alongside the tracks.

Mrs. Atwood was rushed to the P. and S. Hospital in a Sutherland-McCormack ambulance where medical attention was rendered, including an X-ray examination of a knee reported Mrs. Atwood apparently did not receive unusually serious injuries, although both arms and one knee were badly bruised and lacerated. No bones were broken in the knee.

Mrs. Atwood's condition was reported improved early Tuesday afternoon.

Attending physicians said that her injuries were not regarded as critical, although an injury or shock to an aged person was serious.

viding substantial federal financial aid to education.

A bill to allow manufacturers or wholesalers to operate delivery trucks from the railroad commission was overwhelmingly passed to third reading by the house. Rep. W. O. Reed of Dallas blocked its immediate final passage.

The eleemosynary appropriation bill, which had precedence. A similar truck bill was approved by the legislature two years ago but vetoed by Governor James V. Allred.

The senate's departmental spending bill, listing total allotments of $20,981,000 for the new biennium, slices approximately $5,000,000 from the current biennium.

Little Salary Reductions. Senator Morris Roberts of Pettus, chairman of the finance committee, told colleagues it made no sense to reduce salaries when it abolished some jobs through elimination of overlapping work.

It also lists every item of expense allowed each department, and the last appropriation measure would clamp a limit of expenditures or departmental revenue obtained from fees, boosting the expense reduction from some $3,000,000 less from general fund appropriations to an estimated $5,000,000.

From Senator Clint Small of Amarillo, a suggestion on the senate adopt the bill without alteration so it could be worked out finally and expeditiously in conference committee.

Opposing his suggestion was Senator Olan Vase Zandt of Togo who asserted responsibility of appropriating state money was that of individual members who should be given an opportunity to examine every item.

He complained the banking department allotment, providing only three examiners was inadequate because more than 40 state banking institutions had to be examined twice yearly.

Big Money Bills Up in House Today AUSTIN, April 18.—(AP)—With moderate liberalization of old age pensions out of the way, the house today was scheduled to begin floor consideration of some of the big money bills.

Set for special order were: Rural aid, vocational education, judiciary and eleemosynary application of action on a measure suspending statutory salaries.

In the senate today was a probable executive session to act on the nomination of J. M. West, Houston capitalist, as state highway commission chairman. West was Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel's third choice for the post.

The house bill, besides providing moderate liberalization of pensions and a new state department of public welfare. The senate already had passed a bill creating the board.

Whereas the senate bill would have allowed the governor to appoint members of the board, the house proposal gives one appointment each to the governor, lieutenant governor and speaker of the house.

Mrs. West were not boosted in the senate bill. Ownership of a house of less than $8,000 value or ability of children to support him, would not bar a pensioner, the house substitute. Its author, Rep. Louie Carthage, estimated 35,000 persons would be added to pension rolls under these provisions.

Delinquent Tax Bill. Passed by the house, the bill by Rep. Pat Dwyer of San Antonio to release penalties and interest on delinquent taxes provided they are paid in installments starting by next November 1, and ending by November 1, 1941.

Also passed to final reading was a measure providing a 20-year extension of state aid to county for seawall construction at Rockport.

A proposal to set up a state farm, an mfrduwv cmfwv mb parls a policy met temporary defeat in the senate when opponents were successful in postponing final consideration. Leading the fight on the bill, Sen. G. R. Nelson of Lubbock, tackled on an amendment reviving conviction given the death penalty, later commuted to life, to serve 20 years before being eligible for parole. Originally the bill called for 10 years imprisonment.

Marble Machine Tax. Bills to legalize and tax certain types of marble machines and providing full rendition of property for advalorem tax purposes met defeat in the house.

Favorably reported by the senate public lands committee was the bill passed last week amending vacancy laws. Proponents said the bill was aimed at land racketeering.

A constitutional amendment resolution to abolish poll taxes was killed by the house constitutional amendments committee last week. The amendment would have been sponsored by Rep. Odie Weldon of Mabank. Governor O'Daniel advocated abolition of the archives.

SELECT LAMPASAS FOR NEXT MEETING PLACE PRESBYTERY

REV. GARLAND SHELL, TEMPLE, DELIVERED SERMON FINAL SESSION

The Presbytery of Waco began its second and closing day of meeting in Corsicana Tuesday morning. The morning session occupied with committee reports and consideration of bills and overtures regarding Presbytery temple and regulations.

The Presbytery adjourned Tuesday at 12 o'clock noon. All meetings were held at the Third Avenue Presbyterian church.

Lampasas was selected as the next meeting place.

The Rev. Garland Shell, pastor of the Grace Presbyterian church, Temple, delivered the presbyterial sermon Tuesday morning. "Life is Like That" was the subject of Rev. Mr. Shell's address. His text was, "Daniel went into his house and before the open window facing Jerusalem he kneeled and he prayed. They brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions."

"The important thing in life, is like that," he said, "is not what happens inside of him because of the hard blows and sorrows that may come his way. It is what these things mean to him that is of supreme importance," Rev. Mr. Shell said.

Devotional Tuesday. The devotional Tuesday morning session was conducted by the Rev. Gordon MacIntosh, who spoke on the work of the Presbytery in the churches in Texas. Joe Everheart of Kerens also submitted a report at this time.

At 2:30 p. m. Monday afternoon the Rev. H. B. McCoy of Waxahachie reported on Christian education. Following Rev. Mr. McCoy's report, Albert Radcliff of the Presbytery in the care of the Presbytery in the ministry. Walter R. Horn, senior student at S. M. U., was examined by the assembly for ordination to the ministry.

Sunday Schools. Work of the Sunday schools was discussed by the Rev. W. D. Howell during the Monday afternoon session. Rev. Mr. Howell is a member of the board of Christian education. Dr. Frank L. Weir of Trinity University was also present and made a report on that institution.

Monday night the Women's Presbytery was in charge of the meeting. At that time a report of the Presbytery Young People's League was heard by Miss Margaret Balcom of Corsicana. A special message was given by Mrs. A. B. Haynes, synodical president, from Houston. The guest speaker was Mrs. E. C. Donaghy of R. Blackburn of Yucatan, Mexico, who spoke on mission work. Mrs. W. W. Salisbury of Temple was presented in a vocal solo during the service. The Third Avenue Presbyterian choir gave a special program of hymns.

poll taxes in his campaign. Reported favorably by the same committee was a resolution to abolish the civil appeals courts and place the work on the supreme court. Rep. R. E. Donaghy of Vernon contended the appeals courts were intermediary and their decisions meaningless. He would increase the number of supreme court justices.

Political Libel Bill. A bill by Rep. Alfred Petach of Fredericksburg declaring it political libel to circulate false statements concerning the reputation of a public official or a candidate for public office, was reported favorably by the house committee on criminal jurisprudence. Introduced only yesterday the measure gained unanimous approval of the committee.

However, an amendment was attached providing that the act shall not apply to any fair and impartial account in a bona fide newspaper or at a public meeting or in any session of the legislature or legislative committee, or in the trial of a cause in any court of the state. Petach said he expected still further changes to be made.

The bill carries penalties ranging from $100 to $1,000 fines and imprisonments ranging from six months to five years.

A senate committee scheduled a hearing tonight on the house gross receipts tax bill.

To Probe Recidivists. AUSTIN, April 18.—(AP)—By unanimous vote the senate today authorized its standing investigating committee to inquire into alleged abuses in connection with recidivism proceedings involving insurance companies.

Senator Joe Hill of Henderson, author of the resolution, said out of 28 cases in Travis county district courts, involving assets of $189,644, total recidivists costs were more than $494,000 or 64.4 per cent of assets.

The resolution said costs were "wholly beyond reason" and directed the investigating group to study abuses growing out of recidivism and the statutes pertaining thereto.

He accepted a proposal by Senator Weaver Moore authorizing instead of directing the committee inquiry. Moore explained a house bill now in conference committee providing for conservators in recidivism litigation probably would accomplish all aims of the resolution. Otherwise, he said, the group might spend a lot of time on something that is about to be corrected.

May Move Archives. AUSTIN, April 18.—(AP)—History-laden archives of the state may find a permanent home at the University of Texas.

Senator Houghton Brownlee of Austin today introduced a resolution authorizing removal of the valued documents from cramped basement quarters in the capitol to the university.

Under his measure, referred to the state affairs committee, the board of control would be authorized to acquire the school's regents for housing and displaying the archives.
